Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Omar Faruque Mosque and Cultural Centre continues to serve the community by addressing educational, religious, and social needs. The Centre remains an active hub for the Muslim community, welcoming individuals of all ages and genders. Currently, children regularly attend the mosque to learn the Quran and develop proper etiquette and manners.

The mosque actively promotes women's participation across all religious activities and social functions. It continues to provide a welcoming sanctuary where women can connect with their sisters in faith away from their daily responsibilities.

For younger members, the mosque serves not only as a place of worship and education but also as a social gathering point. It offers a healthy environment where youth can interact with educated community members. The positive outcomes of this engagement are evident, with many young people pursuing higher education and professional careers.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all volunteers who continue to dedicate their time and energy to supporting this valuable community resource.

Section E

Financial review

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the 1993 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 43 of the 1993 Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 43(7)(b) of the 1993 Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view, and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below)

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the 1993 Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 1993 Act have not been met: or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
