Charity Commission Registered No. 1117079

ANNUAL REPORT 24/25

The Magdalene Foundation (MF) charity has completed its 19th year, which has, again been a quiet one due to ongoing illness of some Trustees.

Although Magdalene Foundation trustees continue to raise very small amounts of funds, they have not had sufficient reserve to support any appropriate projects with organisations involved in anti-trafficking activities this year. It is anticipated that with the pressures of rising costs and a lack of meaningful donations, we will be unable to make further cash grants in 25/26.

ANNUAL REPORT 21/22

The Magdalene Foundation (MF) charity has completed its 16th year, which has again been a quiet one.

Magdalene Foundation trustees continue to raise small amounts of funds and still have sufficient reserve to modestly support appropriate projects with organisations involved in anti-trafficking activities. Magdalene Foundation made a one off cash grant of £2000.00 to the Salvation Army Anti Trafficking organisation in Wales.

The trustees hope, with the pressures of rising costs, we will be able to make further cash grants in 22/23.

ANNUAL REPORT 20/21

The Magdalene Foundation (MF) charity has completed its 15th year, which has been an exceptionally quiet one due to Covid 19.

Magdalene Foundation trustees continue to raise small amounts of funds and still have sufficient reserve to modestly support appropriate projects with organisations involved in anti-trafficking activities. However, due to difficulties with Coronavirus lockdowns, there have been no cash grants made this year.

The trustees hope, with the easing of Covid 19 restrictions, to be able to make further cash grants in 20/21.
