Potentials trustees are invited to attend trustees' meeting as observers and are given more details of the charity's aims and actives and ,if all agree, they are then proposed as new trustees at the subsequent trustees' meeting. This process allows due consideration of the person's eligibility, personal competence, specialist knowledge and skills.

Trustee induction and Training

Following appointment, new trustees are introduced to their new role and given copies of the trust deed and a guide to the policies and procedures adopted by our charity. A number of publications from the charity commission are also provided including the guidance on charities and public benefit and on the advancement of religion for the public benefit. This ensures that new trustees are aware o the scope of their responsibilities under the charity act. Initially, new trustees work with an existing trustees assisting on particular activities and projects run by the charity. After satisfactory feedback from existing trustees, they are then given the task of leading a particular activities or project , reporting progress at trustees' meetings

Organisational structure

The charity trustees are responsible for the general control and management of the charity. The trustees give their time freely and receive no remuneration or other financial benefit.

The trustees meet together as a body monthly and are responsible for all decision taken in relation to running the Mosque and the community facilities and the activities provided by the charity. To assist in the smooth running of the charity the trustees have set up a number of sub-committee that help them oversee certain aspects of the charity's work.

Sub-committees are currently set up for financial and for the day-to-day management of the building and report back with their recommendations to the full meeting of the trustees. The sub-committees each meeting six times a year, on alternate months to each other. The chair of the trustees chairs both sub-committees whose membership reflect the particular skills that trustees can bring to the work of the sub-committees.

The day-to-day management of the Mosque and community facilities and project are delegated to staff. A separate committee deals with the collection and distribution of Donation meets as required to deal with the collection and distribution of Donation. In addition to that, there are further sub committees for the woman, youth Imams and Dahwa, all with their individual responsibilities.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF Masjid Al Quba (Markez Quba Islamic Centre)

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 March 2024, which are set out on pages 7 to 12

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The Charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- . examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act;
- . to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act), and
- . to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts presents a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirement:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act;
- to prepare accounts which accord with accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order you enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
