For the year ended 30 November 2023

Background

The charity was registered with the Charity Commission on 26 February 2007

The Charities Objects are:

- 1) The relief of poverty in the Jewish community worldwide
- 2) The advancement of education according to the beliefs and values of the Jewish faith worldwide.
- 3) Any charitable purpose at the discretion of the Trustees for the benefit of the community.

Annual Summary

As stated in our previous year's report, the reading remedial programme initiated by the charity has been handed over to another agency. The charity continues to refer users and provide backup and support in this regard. A large focus remains assisting children and teenagers with special educational /emotional needs to provide advocacy, guidance and therapeutic interventions. Feedback has been extremely positive. Outside support for the charity has been good. In addition the charity owns property which is generating a steady income stream.

Statement of Trustees' responsibilities

Charity law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which show a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and its financial activities for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the Trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- State whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the the charity will continue in operational existence

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 1993. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT

Report to the trustees of	Gladstone Charitable Trust
On accounts for the year ended	30 November 2023	Charity no	1068144
Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The trustees of the organisation are responsible for the preparation of accounts; they consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 and that an Independent Examination is needed. It is my responsibility to <ul style="list-style-type: none">• examine the accounts (under section 145 of the 2011 Act),• follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Act), and• state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the trustees have not met the requirements to ensure that:<ul style="list-style-type: none">• proper accounting records are kept (in accordance with section 130 of the Act); and• accounts are prepared which agree with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act; or2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
