

PICT Trustees Report for 2022

As we all know, through the last 12 months there have been a number of challenges facing individuals in our industry and many others.

However, whatever the future holds within the paper and board industry, the presence of PICT as a charitable support vehicle will be maintained.

We have issued a number of reminders, re-stating our purpose and our determination to support our industry colleagues. We have also communicated directly with paper company CEO's and HR officers, to encourage them to pass the PICT charitable message throughout their respective organisations.

Of course we trust that these senior officers will indeed convey that message amongst their staff and colleagues. But we also urge individuals in these companies, who may need help in one form or another, to seek advice from their peers and their management, to find out more about the scope of help that may be obtained from PICT.

Everyone will find a lot more about our charitable support in today's menu card, and contact to us with a request for assistance is very simple. And please let us re-state our firm promise that any approach to us shall be treated in complete confidentiality.

Our thanks to all PICT members and friends for continuing to support us.

From The Trustees of PICT.
