Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The furtherance of the Christian faith and such charity work in the support of the body of members and Christian ministry, known as Wayne Renowden Thomas in England and such other areas as the trustees from time to time may determine.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The people of the charity, continue to support one another and Wayne, as the leader of the work of the charity. A number of meetings and a mission week has been held in Banbury, in support of the objects of the charity. Updates have been provided on the activities of the charity and the objects of the furtherance of the Christian faith were conducted. The people of the Christian ministry continue to faithfully give monetary gifts in support of the work.

The pastors internationally continue to be supported in pastoral and financial matters. Financial gifts are provided via Western Union and paypal. Pastoral care is communicated via email and through the sharing of written material.

As a Christian body and charity, the trustees and the leadership continue to carefully and prayerfully consider the future and the vision for the work.

The trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit in determining what activities are undertaken by the charity and are satisfied that all such activities are carried out in accordance with that guidance and with the aims and objectives of the charity.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Much of Wayne Thomas's work in his employment by the charity in the reporting year has been in the development and production of Christian written material / manuals. These have been shared with the people who support the charity in the UK and to the pastors abroad.

Care has been extended to the people of the charity within the UK via prayer ministry, counsel and teaching. Financial support has been provided as appropriate and with the agreement of the trustees.

The charity continues to assist Christian pastors in various parts of the world by supplying teaching materials through books, teaching audio and in the financial support of orphanages, schools and people which the pastors run. Pastoral and apostolic support is provided via phone calls and email.

The new website is being managed, with blogs and articles being uploaded. The website continues to share Christian material available from Wayne Thomas, as the main employee of the charity.

A regular meeting in Banbury has commenced through two of the families of the charity and this invitation is being extended to others. Wayne Thomas, as the main employee of the charity, and in his apostolic role has been supporting this.

No further international apostolic missions have taken place in the year. The suitability of future trips will be considered.

Independent examiner's report on the accounts

Section A Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees/ members of Wayne Renowden Thomas

On accounts for the year ended	31 March 2025	Charity no (if any)	1119033
---------------------------------------	---------------	----------------------------	---------

Set out on pages 1 and 2
(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *)

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Section A Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees/ members of Wayne Renowden Thomas

On accounts for the year ended 31 March 2024 Charity no (if any) 1119033

Set out on pages 1 and 2
(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *)

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity continues to assist Christian pastors in various parts of the world by supplying teaching materials through books, teaching audio and in the financial support of orphanages, schools and people.

Pastoral and apostolic support is provided via phone calls and email.

The new website has continued to be maintained which continues to display the work and media available from the charity.

Care has been extended to the people of the charity within the UK via prayer ministry, counsel and teaching. Financial support has been provided as appropriate and with the agreement of the trustees.

Much of Wayne Thomas's work in his employment by the charity in the reporting year has been in the writing of manuals and bible commentary. These have been shared with the people who support the charity in the UK and also to the pastors abroad.

No further apostolic missions have taken place in the year. The suitability of future trips will be considered.

A men's meeting has commenced within the ministry group with the aim to support and encourage Christian brothers across the UK. This may in the future establish local groups.

Outreach within the towns in which the people of the ministry live has taken place on an increased level and Wayne, as the main employee of the charity, has been supporting this.

As needs arise, the charity makes gifts and donations to individuals in financial need and to pastors to assist in the furtherance of the gospel.

Section E

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The furtherance of the Christian faith and such charity work in the support of the body of members and Christian ministry, known as Wayne Renowden Thomas in England and such other areas as the trustees from time to time may determine.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The people of the charity, continue to support one another and Wayne, as the focal point for the work of the charity. After the lifting of the restrictions on gatherings two meetings have taken place in the year. Updates were provided on the activities of the charity and the objects of the furtherance of the Christian faith were conducted. The people of the Christian ministry group continue to faithfully give monetary gifts in the support of the apostolic and pastoral work.

The pastors internationally continue to be supported in pastoral and financial matters. This is provided via email communication and the sharing of written material. As a Christian body and also a charity, the trustees and the people continue to carefully and prayerfully consider the future and the vision for the work. This is mind to support Christian works throughout the world.

The trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit in determining what activities are undertaken by the charity and are satisfied that all such activities are carried out in accordance with that guidance and with the aims and objectives of the charity.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Independent examiner's report on the accounts

Section A Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees/ members of Wayne Renowden Thomas

On accounts for the year ended 31 March 2022 Charity no (if any) 1119033

Set out on pages 1 and 2
(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *)

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

 Please delete the words in the brackets if they do not apply.*

Independent examiner's report on the accounts

Section A Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees/ members of Wayne Renowden Thomas

On accounts for the year ended 31 March 2021 Charity no (if any) 1119033

Set out on pages 1 and 2
(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *)

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
