- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

In the year the charity has adopted the following policies:

Finance policy
Safeguarding policy

The trustees are working to develop further policies, as relevant, for adoption by the charity in the next reporting year.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The furtherance of the Christian faith and such charity work in the support of the body of members and Christian ministry, known as Wayne Renowden Thomas in England and such other areas as the trustees from time to time may determine.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The people of the charity, continue to support one another and Wayne, as the leader of the work of the charity. A number of meetings have been held in the towns of Portishead and Banbury, in support of the objects of the charity. Updates have been provided on the activities of the charity and the objects of the furtherance of the Christian faith were conducted. The people of the Christian ministry continue to faithfully give monetary gifts in support of the apostolic and pastoral work.

The pastors internationally continue to be supported in pastoral and financial matters. Pastoral care is communicated via email and through the sharing of written material. Financial gifts are provided via Western Union and paypal and then reclaimed through the Charity's bank account.

As a Christian body and charity, the trustees and the people continue to carefully and prayerfully consider the future and the vision for the work.

The trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit in determining what activities are undertaken by the charity and are satisfied that all such activities are carried out in accordance with that guidance and with the aims and objectives of the charity.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity continues to assist Christian pastors in various parts of the world by supplying teaching materials through books, teaching audio and in the financial support of orphanages, schools and people.

Pastoral and apostolic support is provided via phone calls and email.

A new website has been launched and continues in development, which displays the work and shares Christian material available from the charity.

Care has been extended to the people of the charity within the UK via prayer ministry, counsel and teaching. Financial support has been provided as appropriate and with the agreement of the trustees.

Much of Wayne Thomas's work in his employment by the charity in the reporting year has been in the writing of Christian manuals. These have been shared with the people who support the charity in the UK and also to the pastors abroad.

No further apostolic missions have taken place in the year. The suitability of future trips will be considered.

A regular meeting in Banbury has commenced through two of the families of the charity and this is being extended to others. Wayne Thomas, as the main employee of the charity, has been supporting this.

As needs arise, the charity makes gifts and donations to individuals and pastors in financial need to assist in the furtherance of the gospel. Pastors are assisted with advice on church and kingdom matters, usually via email, and as needs arise.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The policy of the trustees is to keep a minimum reserve of £100 in the current bank account to cover any imminent or unexpected costs.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

There are no funds in deficit.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Independent examiner's report on the accounts

Section A

Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees/members of

Wayne Renowden Thomas

On accounts for the year ended

31 March 2024

Charity no
(if any)

1119033

Set out on pages

1 and 2

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *)

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
