Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the charity are

- The advancement of education in Kenya by the establishment and maintenance of schools
- To provide proper staffing and administration for the schools
- To remove any financial barriers that discriminate against children living in extreme poverty in Kenya from going to school
- To provide a hot meal during the school day to all pupils, staff and local volunteers of the school
- To relieve poverty in the communities in which the supported schools serves

The trustees have regard for the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit in educating children living in extreme poverty in Kenya. The charity currently primarily financially supports Oasis Kindergarten, which operates in Kibera Kenya, the largest slum in Kenya, and the second largest slum in Africa.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity
during the year

2022 was a successful year for Oasis Kindergarten with 60 pupils aged 3-6 years having been educated to a very high level by local standards. Pupils were fed break, and a hot meal for lunch every day, and received basic health checks. 20 new children were admitted to the school and were given a free uniform. 20 other children graduated from the school, having successfully passed their exams for entry into local primary schools. All staff members received training specific to their roles and responsibilities, including a session on safeguarding given by a Kenyan government official and a doctor. A "Chanuka" holiday camp was run in the school holidays to upskill local teenagers.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity aims to provide a sustainable kindergarten in Kibera.
Reserves are kept to ensure that

- all current children can complete their education,
- all staff liabilities, including redundancy if needed, are met,
- the property can be suitably maintained.
- occasional sponsorships can be made in case of severe hardship and exceptional talent

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charity relies on donations from individuals and we are grateful for our supporters' generosity.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2022

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination. I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
