Report of the Trustees
for the Year Ended 31st December 2023

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31st December 2023. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

Principal Activities

The main objectives of fly2help are:

(a) the provision of relief to children and adults in need, by reason of learning or physical disability, life-limiting or severe illness, social isolation, bereavement or other distress, by facilitating experiences of flight and aviation that lift their spirits and promote well-being

(b) the advancement of education in aviation.

During the year under review, fly2help was able to open up access to its charitable programmes despite the on-going impact of the Covid-19 Pandemic. We were able to offer more physical activities and continued to develop projects and activities that could still achieve our charitable objectives.

Significant activities

Our vision is for everyone to be able to access the positive benefits of aviation; changing lives one flight at a time. We do this by working with pilots, aircraft owners and operators, airfields and aviation companies, as well as many volunteers and supporters, to run Air Smiles Days and the Aim High & Travelling Airport educational & careers programme.

Air Smiles Days are experience days that improve the long term well-being and self-esteem of children and adults living in difficult personal situations.

Aim High & the Travelling Airport outreach resource encourages and helps to inspire and motivate children and young people in their future careers, particularly within the aviation and aerospace sectors.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

In 2023, we were able to deliver Air Smiles Days to over 265 beneficiaries and has seen us return to levels achieved pre-2020, including events at Gloucestershire Airport, Bournemouth Airport and Retford Gamston Airport.

In 2023, we continued a full Aim High programme including our Aim High weeks for students aged between 14 and 18 years of age, careers events at schools and delivering our Travelling Airport programmes to mainstream schools and SEND schools. Our aviation education, careers and guidance programme for mainstream schools and young people interested in a career in the aviation industry were funded mainly through our association with The Air Charter Association and our SEND school activities were run in partnership with Barnwood Trust and The ISTAT Foundation as a result of grant funding in 2022.

Our outreach resource, the Travelling Airport, is growing in scope and impact giving young people aged 5 to 18 the opportunity to take part in engaging and inspirational activities based around life at a busy airport. The activity is particularly aimed at younger mainstream primary pupils and SEND School pupils and encourages all pupils to take their first steps in thinking about future careers and what the world of work might look like for them.

We bring our Travelling Airport into school and use various activity stations for children to look and understand who and what it takes to get an aircraft off the ground. The activities are fun, practical and highly sensory, engaging pupils from the highest achieving to those who require more support.

Students have fun with role play, understanding who and what does it take to get an aircraft off the ground, with unique activities such as aircraft marshalling, checking in passengers, security, cabin crew demonstrations and much more.

For many students it may be their first experience of this type of environment and is particularly valuable for young people with specific disabilities or personal challenges which means they have been excluded from wider world experiences that others may take for granted, such as visiting an airport.

The real life roleplay is important in helping students overcome anxiety whilst challenging their own preconceptions and physical boundaries by participating in a real life work experience but from within their own safe and supportive environment.

It is also incredibly valuable in highlighting the range of accessible and achievable jobs and careers within the aviation industry, expanding personal horizons and encouraging awareness and conversations around achievable future career goals.

For older pupils, we continue to engage with Taster Days at local airports, looking at specific careers such as pilots or engineering and also attending careers events within schools to promote these events.

Overall, we were able to support over 5000 young people through a variety of Aim High and Travelling Airport programmes and events.

While fly2help's founders are the first to say that establishing the charity has been a team effort, the Trustees and staff would like to pay tribute to their vision, which has now made a positive difference to so many beneficiaries.

Air Smiles Days

Air Smiles Days are bespoke experience days for children and adults living with profound disability, life-limiting conditions, severe illness, bereavement and isolation. Built around a flight in a light aircraft, the days include a variety of different activities that enables our beneficiaries to leave their worries on the ground and enjoy a memorable day with their loved ones.

Our Air Smiles Days programme offers beneficiaries a day of respite from everyday difficulties and isolation in a supportive environment and the impact of this experience continues to build well-being, confidence and courage whilst strengthening the bonds between those taking part, creating lasting memories of happiness to brighten the darkest of days.

We have delivered our Air Smiles Days to individuals, families and larger groups through collaboration with other charities, including Heart Heroes, Gloucestershire Carers and Veteran Carers.

We have also developed a partnership with national car clubs, notably Porsche Club GB and Sporting Bears Dream Rides who have joined us on our Air Smiles Days and provide supercar experiences for families alongside the flights and other activities offered during the events. This additional activity has become very popular with our beneficiaries as the whole group can take part in an additional exciting activity together, and we are very grateful to the Porsche Club GB and Sporting Bears, and their volunteer drivers, who have joined us for our events.

We continue to assess both the need and benefit of our Air Smiles Days Programme using our robust impact reporting structure which evaluates the immediate and long term impact and benefits for our beneficiaries.

Aim High & Travelling Airport

In 2023, we were delighted to be able to return to our full programme of Aim High activities, including our Aim High week targeting young people who were interested in careers in the aerospace and aviation industries.

We continued to visit primary schools and particularly SEND (Special Educational Needs and Disabilities) schools and found that the activities we were able to offer were having a profound impact on the participants. We also hosted events at local airports for youth groups such as cubs and beavers, offering younger children an opportunity to see behind the scenes at a working airport and providing inspiration and support to early career ambitions.

The fly2help Aim High Travelling Airport activities continue to align with the vision of Air Smiles, using aviation for the provision of relief to children in need, by reason of learning or physical disability, life-limiting or severe illness, social isolation, bereavement or other distress, by facilitating experiences of flight and aviation that lift their spirits and promote well-being. We see that larger groups of younger beneficiaries are able to benefit as much from the Travelling Airport visiting them in their schools, as they might have benefitted from visiting the airport. Our resource allowed them to 'play' whilst learning about the incredible benefits of aviation and we are proud of the unique and very special impact of this exciting outreach resource.

We also remain committed to supporting and inspiring our older children through out Aim High Career Weeks and we support the belief that the aviation sector still needs passionate and inspirational young people entering the aviation sector. We will continue to offer more targeted events at young people, through taster events and other job specific advice. We use our programmes to continue to inspire young people about new career pathways in aviation and also to open up discussions around emerging technologies and the future sustainability of the industry, through engagement with pioneering organisations who can provide talks and visits to our students.

Ultimately, fly2help is committed to ensuring that our Aim High and Travelling Airport Programmes opens up access to the aviation industry for all young people, and our programmes reflect the aims of the industry being more accessible, inclusive and diverse.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Principal funding sources

fly2help has also received donations from individuals, companies, groups and associations and professional organisations which have provided funding to deliver the Aim High Travelling Airport to SEND Pupils in 2023.

In 2023 we were once again chosen as Charity of the Year by ACA (the Air Charter Association) and were the recipients of donations from their fundraising events throughout the year for which we remain extremely grateful.

We are also extremely grateful to all those organisations that continued to support and raise money for fly2help, especially in such difficult times.

We were able to deliver fundraising events in 2023 notably very successful Skydive and WingWalk's, the fly2help Gala Dinner in September 2023 and the Gloucestershire Winter Ball in December 2023.

fly2help has continued to work with many aviation companies which support our Air Smiles Days or Aim High programmes and this year we are particularly grateful to Gloucestershire Airport, Skyborne Airline Academy, RGV Engineering, Aeros Flight Training and many more. We thank them all for their support.

fly2help traditionally receives considerable gifts in kind support of donated flights, volunteer pilots and other volunteers who give their professional skills free of charge, we remain deeply grateful to all our supporters and look forward to working with them more in 2023.

Reserves policy

fly2help maintains sufficient unrestricted reserves to operate the charity without income for at least three months.

At year end, fly2help had positive reserves of £85,078 carried forward.

FUTURE RISK

The return to a full programme of charitable activities has been a major boost for fly2help and we are seeing an increased demand from individuals, other charities and educational establishments for access to our programmes. However, this brings increasing challenges around funding for fly2help, and we have seen the difficulties in the fundraising landscape across the board, with increased demand for access to trusts and grants and reduced funding available due to the ongoing cost of living crisis.

fly2help has sought to mitigate the financial risk by implementing a series of strategies to address our overhead costs and allocate more resources directly to our charitable programmes, and this has included:

- utilizing volunteers for roles within the charity that don't require specialized skills
- outsourcing non-core functions such as IT support
- exploration of digital fundraising
- seeking in kind donations and sponsorship to minimize costs of event fundraising

We believe our goals are achievable as the charity continues to demonstrate the high social capital value of all its charitable activities, the close alignment between Air Smiles and Aim High and the incredible impact they have upon our beneficiaries.

FUTURE PLANS

The Strategic Plan Interim Review of 2022 has formed the basis upon which fly2help planned a return to full charitable activities in 2023, including the refocus of our activities and the subsequent development and increased accessibility of our activities which has led to an enhanced engagement with both beneficiaries and our supporters and donors.

- we continue to deliver a wider Air Smiles Programme which also included ground based activities, to allow us to continue supporting communities using the power of aviation. Our enhanced use of social media platforms to reach into our communities has continued to raise awareness and imbed fly2help in the hearts and minds of the different communities in which we operate.

- the refocusing of Aim High has allowed us to offer our programmes to many more young people across the UK, we continue to increase the number of young people who can access our courses and have widened the range of ages we support taking part in Aim High. We will continue to offer more focused educational activities and career specific taster days, visits and work experience opportunities and the on-going reach of our Travelling Airport into primary and SEND schools.

- our PR & Marketing Strategy has helped us develop a strategic social media policy. We have used all platforms available to us to reach out across the UK and open up opportunities for all young people who have a passion and interest in aviation. Our powerful and engaging reinforcement of the aviation industry as a force for positive change will continue to support all aspects of the aviation community.
