Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	To promote the physical and mental health of sufferers of postnatal post-traumatic stress disorder and other persons traumatised by childbirth by providing support and advice. To promote and encourage research into the preventions of postnatal post-traumatic stress disorder and raise awareness of it.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Our main activity is to provide peer support for parents who have experienced traumatic birth in two principal ways: a Facebook group, which launched in 2009, and email peer support, launched in 2018. The group was highly active throughout this period, typically publishing 20 or 30 posts a day with high engagement. Our peer support team, which now has 18 members, operated throughout the year to answer emails from both women and men who had experienced or witnessed traumatic births. We have a volunteer manager who recruits, trains and manages the peer supporters, making sure they have the support they need to do the job. The peer supporters operate to a rota, and work together on a WhatsApp group to ask for advice about particular topics that crop up and swap rota days if necessary. Our fortnightly Zoom drop-in service, launched in November 2020 continues to run. Our phone service is now fully operational.

		Our previous website was becoming dated and as we were able to acquire a grant to assist with rebranding and website upgrades, we used this and some accrued funds to commission a more attractive and user friendly interface for our service users.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees confirm they have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission in respect of public benefit.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	BTA annual report 2022-23 Peer support In 2022-23, we continued to expand our peer support. We launched phone support for the first time, and our team of peer supporters offering email support grew to 18 people. At the same time, our Facebook group continued to grow, and by March 2023 it had more than 15,000 members – an increase of 2,500 in the space of a year. We also continued to provide fortnightly Zoom drop-ins run by our communities officer. Training At the end of 2021, we were awarded a small grant to create three training videos for health professionals, entitled What is Birth Trauma?, Preventing birth trauma and Trauma-informed care. The grant also included funding for a series of Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) documents on topics such as making a complaint and accessing birth notes. We worked on the training videos throughout 2022 and launched them, along with the FAQs, in January 2023. Our peer supporter manager, helped course leaders interview students applying to a new midwifery course at Birmingham University. Her role was to represent the BTA and provide a service user's perspective. Wristbands We introduced wristbands with the words "Use trauma informed care" for people to wear in a health care setting if they have been previously traumatised by birth, sold at a cost of £3 per wristband. They have proved immensely popular. Awareness Week We ran a successful Awareness Week in July 2022 on the theme of birth injuries. The week included Instagram Lives in which experts answered questions relating to different aspects of birth injuries. These included a psychologist, a physiotherapist, a lawyer and a paediatrician. We also carried out a joint survey on

		birth injuries with Make Birth Better and the Australasian Birth Trauma Association, the results of which were published in an article in the Independent. Research We continued our involvement with the ROTATE trial which is investigating ways to reduce perineal trauma in women whose babies are malpositioned in the second stage of labour. Branding and website We worked with a designer to create a beautiful new brand and logo, replacing our older branding. We also won funding for a new website, and began work on this in March 2023, using the same designer. Media and public engagement We produced a new version of our principal leaflet, Coping with a traumatic birth, along with a Polish translation. We also produced a completely new leaflet aimed at fathers and partners. Committee members gave talks to health professionals and interviews to the media. This included a talk to a conference organised by the University of Derby's midwifery society; an interview with Eve Canavan of the Maternal Mental Health Alliance for Maternal Mental Health Awareness Week in May; an interview with Rhiannon Lucy Cosslett for a Guardian article on birth trauma; several interviews with the BBC; and an interview with the Lockdown Babies podcast about having a subsequent baby after birth trauma.
