Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

- (i) to advance the religion of Islam in the Lewsey farm and surrounding areas in particular for the benefit of the public through the holding of prayer meetings and congregational worship, talks and lectures, public celebration of Islamic religious festivals and producing and/or distributing literature on Islam to enlighten others about Muslims and the Islamic faith.
- (ii) to promote for the benefit of the inhabitants of Lewsey farm and the surrounding areas the provision of facilities for recreation or other leisure time occupation of individuals who have need of such facilities by reason of their youth, age, infirmity or disablement, financial hardship or social and economic circumstances or for the public at large in the interests of social welfare and with the object of improving the condition of life of the said inhabitants within the parameters of the Islamic faith;
- (iii) to advance in life and relieve the needs of young people through Islamic instruction by: (a) the provision of recreational and leisure time activities provided in the interest of social welfare designed to improve their conditions of life; and (b) providing support and activities which develop their skills, capacities and capabilities to enable them to participate in society as mature and responsible individuals.
- (iv) to advance the education of the public in the Islamic religion and language and the culture and heritage of Muslims in general; and,
- (v) to further any charitable purpose consistent with the teachings of Islam according to the laws of England and Wales

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The Society serves the religious, social and cultural needs of the local Muslim population living and working in the Lewsey Farm and surrounding areas of Luton in Bedfordshire. The Society is responsible for the administration of Zakariya Masjid and Madresa-e-Furqaniah and works closely with other local organisations and faith groups for improvements to facilities and services in the community.

- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The Society has launched a campaign for future improvement of services and activities for the community including a development programme for Zakariya Masjid and Madresa-e-Furqaniah. During the year the Society purchased an additional building in order to help generate additional funds and resources in advancement of the capital expenditure fund. This is ongoing.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The Society does not have a specific reserves policy but due to the nature of the activities and services provided and the relatively small nature of the organisation. The Trustees have in mind the need to seek appropriate advice in this regard as needed.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 30 JUNE 2022.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
