Objectives and Activities of the Charity

A summary of the objects of the charity as set out in its governing document.

The charity's principal objectives are the propagation of the gospel, the advancement of christian faith and to serve the wider society by pursuing aims consistent with our christian moral and spiritual values.

Each year, the Board of Trustees reviews the objectives and activities to ensure they continue to reflect charity's aims.

Public benefit that is provided by the charity

In the year review, the Trustees have considered the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit and in particular its supplementary public guidance on the advancement of religion for the public benefit.

The charity exists for the public benefit and opens its services and activities to all and provided support to less privileged and needy people through gifts in kind and where appropriate financial assistance, giving financial support to other charities that share common values and also organise training and events in

Achievements and Performance of the Charity

Summary

1. Regular programmes

Sunday worship Service held regularly for motivating and inspiring members towards godliness and life fulfilment.

Monthly Night Vigil/Prayer held on a monthly basis as a grand finale night to round up a three-day fasting and prayer aimed at praying for our community in particular and our nation at large held during the Friday ending the first full week of every month.

In addition, 3 batches of 7-days of partial fast and prayers were observed in the months of January, July and December respectively.

Choir Practice holds every Thursday of the week.

Women of Wisdom meetings held on alternate months with a focus to empower, enable and equip women to perform their roles at home particularly

- Equip women to perform their roles at home particularly and society at large successfully.
- Annual Woman of Wisdom conference held in August, a three-day event held to empower women in capacity building.

Gatehouse Apostolic Ministries International

- We organised a 3-day conference called Freedom Conference geared towards spiritual liberation and creating awareness of the need for freedom in every area of life in November.
- Empowerment Hour is our regular Wednesday teaching session that is aimed at developing a

2. Community Outreach Achievements

- Hope Arise Outreach, a Homeless feeding initiative which was born in March of 2009 metamorphosed into a Saturday only food distribution to the Homeless group outside of the Church premises particularly at the Town Centre. This Outreach focused on those who are living at the fringes of our Luton community. This is part of our drive to alleviate poverty in our community. This Outreach has been primarily funded through voluntary donations of items needed to feed the homeless people we reach to in-house.
- We participated in annual one day event, Hallowed, a program organised as an alternative to Halloween, for children across the London area, at the last Saturday of October 2022.

3. Mental-empowerment Achievements

- Abba Leadership Institute resumes classes in January 2022, studying for a 9-month Diploma in Leadership and Christian ministry. Abba Leadership Institute is an institute established to combine the streams of functional and spiritual competencies. We also continue our online teaching broadcast of "Awaken the Leadership In You" every Friday geared at mental empowerment through Business and Leadership books summaries.

4. Social Empowerment and Inclusion Achievements

- Family, Fun, Food and Fellowship [Day (FFFFD) was successfully organised in July to foster a community spirit and engender close interactions with the aim of creating a sense of belonging and togetherness within the church and our immediate community including friends and families outside of the church community (Social Bonding).
- Stewardship Training, a quarterly training session, is a regular feature of our education drive to help in-house volunteers make sense of their time contributions by helping them gain a broader perspective of their service in the community of faith and others in the society. This is an example of our personal enrichment vision.
- We had a Marriage Enrichment Weekend held once, in March 2022, to strengthen marriages in the Church and beyond.
- Our Evangelism initiatives are organised periodically with the aim of making others aware of the dynamics of our faith.
- The annual Woman of wisdom Conference was organised in August to empower and equip women with skills essential skills for use both at home and in the workplace.
- We participated in the annual Prophetic Voice Ministries Leaders' Retreat organised by Christ Faith Tabernacle with the aim of exposing our leaders who are also leaders at their respective homes to

5. International Outreach

Kingdom Arena, Ibadan branch, Nigeria, kicked off on the 28th August 2022. This was our first attempt at international expansion for Gatehouse Apostolic Ministries International.

The methods adopted for the recruitment and appointment of new trustees

The Board of Trustees consists of at least three and not more than seven individuals, all of whom must be members. Trustees are appointed by the Board of Trustees using basic skills and experience method. Due consideration is given to what is required to make the Board as efficient and effective in its performance and workings. The Trustees serves a term of three years which is renewable or extendable at the discretion of the Board.

The existing trustees are already familiar with the practical work of the charity.

Any new trustee are invited and encouraged to undergo induction training to familiarise them with the charity and its legal obligations, roles and responsibilities and its operational framework including

Financial Review

Policies on reserves

The position of the Board is to maintain sufficient unrestricted funds to cover operations and management running costs for a period of 6 months. In deciding the level of reserves, the trustees considered the forecasts of levels of income and expenditure for the coming year, the reliability of each source of income and the prospects of new sources of income. The trustees believes that the current level of unrestricted funds maintained by the charity is adequate for its management.

Restricted funds are reserve of money that can only be used for specific purposes. It provides

Transactions and Financial position

The financial statements are set out on pages 9 to 15. The financial statements have been prepared implementing the 2005 Revision of the Statement of Recommended Practice for Accounting and Reporting by Charities issued by the Charity Commission for England and Wales (revised in June 2008) and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective April 2008). As stated in the introduction to this report, the trustees consider the financial performance by the charity during the period to have been satisfactory.

The Statement of Financial Activities show net incoming resources for the year of a revenue nature of £118,458 (including gift aid contributions) and total outgoing resources of £100,299 thereby resulting in a

Specific changes in fixed assets

During the year under review, there was movement in fixed assets. Various church musical instruments were acquired to the sum of £1,363. The sum of £14,992 was expended during the year in building works on the church landed property in Ibadan City in Oyo State in Nigeria.

Share Capital

The company is limited by guarantee and therefore has no share capital.

The members of the Board of Trustees of the Charity during the year ended 31st December 2022 and who approved the accounts were :-

Reverend Samuel Olumoyegun - Chairman
Reverend Babatunde Ogedengbe
Reverend Abiola Bamigbade
Dr Joy Jinmi

All the directors of the company are also trustees of the charity, and their responsibilities include all the responsibilities of directors under the Companies Acts and of trustees under the Charities Acts.

Statement of Directors' and Trustees' Responsibilities

The Charities Act and the Companies Act require the Board of Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity as at the end of

for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity as at the end of the financial year and of the surplus or deficit of the charity. In preparing those financial statements the Board is required to :-

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial

The Trustees are also responsible for maintaining adequate accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and which are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006 and comply with regulations made under the Charities Act. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The trustees are also responsible for the contents of the trustees' report.

Method of preparation of accounts

These accounts have been prepared in accordance with the provisions of Charities Act and Companies House 2006 applicable to companies subject to the small companies regime.

Gatehouse Apostolic Ministries International Independent Accountant's Report

Report of the Independent Accountant to the trustees on the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 31 December 2022

We report on the financial statements of the charity on pages 9 to 15 for the year ended 31 December 2022 which have been prepared in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (the FRSSE) , effective April 2008, as modified by the Statement of Recommended Practice for Accounting and Reporting issued by the Charity Commissioners for England & Wales, effective April 2005 revised in June 2008, (The SORP), under the historical cost convention and the accounting policies set out on page 10.

Respective responsibilities of directors and accountant

As described on page 7, the charity's trustees, who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law, are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that the audit requirement of Section 144(1) of the Charities Act 2011 (the Act) does not apply, and that there is no requirement in the memorandum and articles of the charity for the conducting of an audit, and that the charity is exempt from an audit under Section 477 of the Companies Act 2006. The trustees also consider the charity to be exempt from the requirement to be subject to Independent Examination.

Our responsibility is to prepare accounts upon the basis of the information supplied to us.

No statement of opinion

We have not carried out any audit procedures and have relied upon information supplied to us by the trustees , and the information supplied by the trustees in the course of the examination is not subjected to audit tests or enquiries, and consequently we do not express an audit or other assurance opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Gatehouse Apostolic Ministries International
for the year ended 31 December 2022

1 Accounting policies

a) Basis of preparation of the accounts

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with all applicable accounting standards, as modified by the Statement of Recommended Practice for Accounting and Reporting issued by the Charity Commissioners for England & Wales, effective April 2005 (revised June 2008) (The SORP). The accounts have been drawn up in accordance with the provisions of the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 and the Companies Acts, and include the results of the charity's operations which are described in the Trustees' Report, all of which are continuing.

Advantage has been taken of Section 396(5) of The Companies Act 2006 to allow the format of the financial statements to be adapted to reflect the special nature of the company's operation and in order to comply with the requirements of the SORP.

The company has taken advantage of the exemption in Financial Reporting Standard No 1 from the requirement to produce a cash flow statement.

The particular accounting policies adopted are set out below.

b) Accounting convention

The financial statements are prepared, on a going concern basis, under the historical cost convention.

c) Incoming Resources

Incoming resources such as titles, offerings and other donations are accounted for on a receivable basis.

Investment income consists of net interest received on bank deposit account during the year and recorded as unrestricted.

d) Fixed assets and depreciation

All tangible fixed assets are stated at cost less depreciation.

Items of less than £100 are not capitalised.

Depreciation has been provided at the following rates in order to write off the assets (less their estimated residual value) over their estimated useful economic lives.

Fixtures & fittings	25% straight line
Plant & Equipment	25% straight line
Musical equipment	20% straight line
Office furniture	20% straight line
Motor vehicle	25% straight line

e) Taxation

As a registered charity, the company is exempt from income and corporation tax to the extent that its income and gains are applicable to charitable purposes only. Value Added Tax is not recoverable by the company, and is therefore included in the relevant costs in the Statement of Financial Activities. No tax liability has arisen for the charity in the course of its activities.

f) Resources expended

All expenditure is accounted for in this financial statement on an accrual basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all costs related to the category. Resources expended includes attributable VAT which cannot be recovered and is reported as part of the expenditure to which it relates:

- Cost of generating voluntary funds comprise the costs associated with attracting voluntary income.
- Charitable expenditure comprises those costs incurred by the charitable company in the delivery of its activities for its beneficiaries. It includes both costs that can be allocated directly to such activities and

expenses for the maintenance of premises and costs that can be allocated directly to each service and those costs of an indirect nature necessary to support them.

- Governance costs include those costs associated with meeting the constitutional and statutory requirements of the charitable company and include the accountants' fees and costs linked to the strategic management of the charitable company.
- All costs are allocated between the expenditure categories of the Statement of Financial Activities on a basis designed to reflect the use of the resource. Costs relating to a particular activity are allocated directly; others apportioned on an appropriate basis.

Designated property/building funds in the year	-	-	-	-
At 31st December 2021	5,136	14,959	20,095	(13,023)

General funds are unrestricted funds which are available for use at the discretion of the Trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charitable company and which have not been designated for other purposes.

Restricted funds are funds that account for situations where a donor requires that a donation must be spent on a particular purpose or where funds have been raised for a specific purpose. There was a brought forward balance of £14,959.00 as at 1st January 2021.

The designated purpose for this set of restricted is to provide adequate funding for the property maintenance to make the current site fit for purpose and sustainable, as well as provide funds to make a deposit towards

h) Finance and operating leases

Assets purchased under finance leases are capitalised as fixed assets, and the obligations under such agreements are included in creditors. The difference between the capitalised cost and the total obligation under the lease represents the finance charges. Finance charges are written off to the SOFA over the period of the lease so as to produce a constant periodic rate of charge.

Rentals payable in respect of operating leases where substantially all the benefits and risks of ownership remain with the lessor are charged to the Statement of Financial Activities as incurred.
