Structure, governance and management

The charity is governed by a trust and its trustees are responsible for the general control and management of the charity. The trustees give their time freely and receive no remuneration or other financial benefit.

In selecting trustees we will seek to identify people who have expressed an interest in assisting the charity; and its aims and objectives.

Activities and Objectives

The charity objectives are set out in the charity's trust deed and are summarised as follows:-

- To assist the victims of natural and other disasters;
- To provide assistance to people suffering financial hardship or in poverty struggling to obtain the essentials of life.

The trustees have considered the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit when reviewing organisational strategy and planning future activities and are satisfied that charity continues to have significant charitable purpose and will deliver a very tangible benefit.

Achievement and Performance

During the year the majority of the funds were spent in supporting orphans and water projects.

Finance review and Reserves policy

It is the charity's policy to hold minimum reserves and to distribute funds as soon as suitable projects are identified. Reserves may be accumulated to fund larger projects.
