The charity is governed by a trust and its trustees are responsible for the general control and management of the charity. The trustees give their time freely and receive no remuneration or other financial benefit.

In selecting trustees we will seek to identify people who have expressed an interest in assisting the charity; and its aims and objectives.

Activities and Objectives

The charity objectives are set out in the charity's trust deed and are summarised as follows:-

- To provide assistance to people suffering financial hardship or in poverty struggling to obtain the essentials of life.

The trustees have considered the Charity Commissions's guidance on public benefit when reviewing organisational strategy and planning future activities and are satisfied that the Charity continues to have significant charitable purpose and will deliver a very tangible benefit.
