OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives for public benefit

The objects of the charity are the advancement of the Orthodox Jewish faith, the advancement of Orthodox Jewish religious education, the relief of poverty, sickness and infirmity amongst members of the Jewish faith and such other purposes as are recognised as charitable by English Law.

The objects of the charity are achieved by grantmaking. The trustees confirm that they have given due regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit when reviewing the charity's aims and objectives and in planning future activities, and setting the grant making policy for the year.

Grantmaking policy

In general the trustees select the institutions to be supported according to their personal knowledge of work of the institution. Whilst not actively inviting applications, they are always prepared to accept any application which will be carefully considered and help given according to circumstances and funds then available.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Financial position

The charity's income is derived from voluntary donations. Income for the year increased by some 10%.

During the year the charity continued its philanthropic activities and has maintained its support of organisations engaging in education, advancement of religion and the relief of poverty, as per note 5 to the financial statements.

Reserves policy

The trustees do not seek to maintain reserves, other than to ensure that they can continue the activities of the charity. Reserves, at the year end were £196,366 (2019 - £192,104).

FUTURE PLANS

The trustees anticipate that the charity will continue on a similar basis in the foreseeable future subject to satisfactory income and there are no plans for any major changes.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Constitution

The charity is constituted as a company limited by guarantee and it governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association dated 8 August 2007.

Organisational structure

The power to appoint new trustees is vested in the continuing board. New trustees are appointed based on personal competence, specialist skills and experience. They are inducted into the working of the charity by the board and are given, in the view of the board, sufficient training to understand the nature of the charity and be able to comply with the charity's current views. They are also encouraged to read the Charity Commission's various publications on trustees. All trustees give of their time voluntarily.

Risk management

The trustees have reviewed the major risks that the charity faces and confirm that they have established systems to mitigate them.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies.

Approved by order of the board of trustees on 15 July 2021 and signed on its behalf by:

M Freund - Trustee

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF YEITEV LEV ERETZ ISRAEL LIMITED

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Yeitev Lev Eretz Israel Limited ('the Company')

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31 August 2020.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

Since your charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 your examiner must be a member of a listed body. I can confirm that I am qualified to undertake the examination because I am a registered member of Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales which is one of the listed bodies.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
