Trustees Annual Report

For the year ending 5 April 2025

1. Establishment and Purpose

Central Eurasian Partners was established by a Trust Deed dated 7 March 2007. The charity's main purpose is to provide financial and other support for our Christian partners for their mission work in many Eastern European countries.

2. Trustees and Officers

During the year the following served as Trustees:

Mr Paul Carter (chairman & treasurer)

Mrs Katherine Hillcoat (communications)

Mr Sam Bantu

Mrs Sandra Carter

Mr Michael Couzens

The number of Trustees may not be fewer than three or more than eight. The appointment and removal of Trustees vests in the existing Trustees.

3. Address

The principal address of the charity is

Central Eurasian Partners

3 Albert Illsley Close

Reading RG31 5PJ

4. Objects and Main Activities

The objects of the charity are the general purposes of such charitable bodies or for such other charitable purposes as the Trustees may from time to time decide as shall be exclusively charitable.

To achieve this object, the main activities are:

- Supporting individual projects that fit the objects of Central Eurasian Partners
- Creating awareness of the needs of the people in Eastern Europe and Central Asia
- Developing and maintaining a network of advocates

5. Public benefit

The Trustees have complied with the duty (set out in Section 4 of the Charities Act 2006) to have due regard to public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission. The Trustees consider that public benefit is provided by the focus of the donations on education and training, relief of poverty and community development, together with religious activities.

Specific activities during the year, assisted by our donations, included:

- Subsidised school places.
- Counselling and support for war widows in Ukraine.
- Help for Ukrainian refugees in Poland
- All partners sent representatives to a CEP conference held on Zoom at which activity reports were given showing how donations were being used and future needs prioritised.

6. Donations

Donations passed on to Partner mission organizations totalled £102,213.28 compared with £84,334.10 in the previous year.

7. Reserves

The Trustees do not seek to maintain a general reserve beyond the needs of providing a reasonable level of working capital, and if any significant accumulation of such funds were to occur, giving to Partners would increase accordingly.

8. Risk Assessment

The Trust exists to benefit the promotion and encouragement of Christian missionary work overseas.

The major source of income to the Trust is from donations from individuals.

The Trustees consider that the greatest risk to the Trusts ability to continue its activities is that donations would diminish. Were income to decrease substantially, the trust would have to reduce the level of its financial help to Partners.

Regarding the risk of losses arising from dishonest activities or negligence on the part of officers or Trustees, the Trustees consider that internal check procedures already in place provide reasonable assurance.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 5/4/2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINATION

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts; you consider that the audit requirements of section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the Act) do not apply. It is my responsibility to state, on the basis of procedures specified in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners under section 43(7)(b) of the Act whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Report

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements to keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the Act; and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the Act have not been met, or to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts for the year ended 5 April 2024 to be reached.
