Responsibilities of the Trustees

Charity Law and Company Law requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial period which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company as at the Balance Sheet Date, and of its incoming resources, including income and expenditure for the financial year.

In preparing those financial statements, the Trustees should follow best practice and

- a. Select suitable accounting policies and the apply them consistently.
- b. Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- c. Follow applicable accounting standards and the Charities SORP 2015, disclosing and explaining any departures in the financial statements.
- d. Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to assume that the charity will continue in operation.

The Trustees are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and to enable them as Trustees to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charity Law.

The Trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the charity's assets, and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other regularities.

Board Of Trustees

Members of The Board of Trustees, who are Directors for the purpose of Company Law and Trustees for the purpose of Charity Law, are set out on Page 1.

Political and Charitable Donations

During the period, the Charity made Grants and Donations of £11,295 (2020 £195,321)

The Euro

The impact of the Euro has been considered generally by the company. Although the impact of the changeover to the Euro is not currently anticipated to be significant, this issue is being closely monitored.

The above report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies.

Approved by The Trustees of Synagogue Maharim Dushinsky Limited on 1 June 2022, and signed on behalf of them all.

Notes To The Accounts - 30 September 2021

1) Principal Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The Accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention in accordance with the FRS 102 Section 1A Small Entities - The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland and the Companies Act 2006, Charities Act (Accounts and Reports) 2011, and the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities 102, and follow the recommendations in Accounting and Reporting By Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice (effective from April 2015).

Cash Flow

The accounts do not include a cash flow statement because the charitable company as a small reporting entity is exempt from the requirement to prepare such a statement.

Donations and Fund Accounting

Donations received for the general and main purposes of the Charity are included as unrestricted funds in the Statement of Financial Activities when receivable.

Donations and Grants for activities restricted by the donors are taken to restricted funds if the wishes and conditions of the donor are legally binding on the Trustees.

Resources Expended

Resources expended are accounted for on an accruals basis. Certain expenditure is apportioned to cost categories based on estimated amount attributable to that activity in the year. These estimates are based on the time and level of activity as appropriate.

Management and administration costs are those incurred in connection with administration of the charity and compliance with constitutional and statutory requirements.

The irrecoverable element of VAT is included with the item of expense to which it relates.

Independent Examiner's to the Trustees on the Unaudited Accounts of the Charitable Company Synagogue Maharim Dushinsky Limited

We report on the accounts for the year ended 30 September 2021 set out on pages 4 to 8.

Respective Responsibilities Of Directors / Trustees and Reporting Accountants

As described on page 3, the trustees as directors of the charitable company are responsible for the preparation of the accounts, and they consider that the company is exempt from an audit. It is our responsibility to carry out the procedures designed to enable us to report our opinion.

Since your charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 your examiner must be a member of a listed body. I can confirm that I am qualified to undertake the examination because I am a registered member of one of the listed bodies.

Basis of Opinion

Our work was conducted in accordance with the Statement of Standards for Reporting Accountants and so our procedures consisted of comparing the accounts with the accounting records kept by the company, and making such limited enquiries of the officers of the company as we considered necessary for the purposes of this report. These procedures provide only the assurance expressed in our opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion

- a) The Accounts are in agreement with the accounting records kept by the company under Section 447 of the Companies Act 2006;
- b) Having regard to, and on the basis of, the information contained in those accounting records:
 - (I) The Accounts have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the accounting requirements specified in section 386 of the Act; and
 - (II) The Company satisfied the conditions for exemption from an audit of the accounts for the year specified in section 476 of the Act and did not, at any time within that year, fall within any of the categories of companies not entitled to the exemption specified in section 477.
