The Trust is governed by a Trust Deed dated 4 July 2007 and registered with the Charity Commission No. 1121760. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Trust Deed, the accounting policies set out on page 8 and applicable law.

The Trust continues its objective to advance the Orthodox Christian faith, in particular by the formation of a monastic community, or more than one such community and to provide for members of the Orthodox Church and others a place of prayer and worship and hospitality.

4 Review of Activities

(a) Monastic and Liturgical Life

Mother Martha resides full-time within the Sisterhood, adhering to her monastic rule. Services without a priest are conducted from 6:00 am to 8:30 am and 5:00 pm to 7:00 pm, Monday to Friday.

On Saturdays, services take place from 7:00 am to 9:00 am and 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm. The Sunday Liturgy, officiated by a priest, is held from 8:00 am to 12:00 pm.

The services are primarily conducted in both English and Church Slavonic.

After the services, the Sisterhood organizes charity lunches for all visitors, accompanied by spiritual talks delivered either by the priest or Mother Martha.

(b) Spiritual Activities and missionary work

- Web site and Facebook page provide information regarding the calendar of events and services, reviews of the Orthodox web sites in English, information on pilgrimages to British and Irish Holy places. <https://gdelizabeth.org.uk>

- Books. We offer books in English and in Russian. Although the turnover is very small, we consider it necessary to continue it being one of the ways of educating our parishioners and giving them opportunity to learn more about Orthodoxy, its services and its saints.
- Library. Our parishioners use our library which includes books on Orthodoxy, lives of British and Russian Saints, Orthodox magazines in English and Russian, service books, DVDs etc.
- Psalter. The Psalter is read daily by Sister Martha and volunteer parishioners, with prayers offered for the sick and those in need.
- Church choir. Chanting is an important part of the Orthodox service and, therefore, the choir plays a major role in church services. Our choir mistress holds choir practices at least twice a week. In addition she provides one-to-one lessons for singers who need them.

(c) Missionary Outlook

The Sisterhood has a missionary outlook.

Many people attending services have rather little experience of regular church life.

We organise and take part in the pilgrimages to the places connected with early Christian British and Irish saints and encourage our parishioners to learn more about early Christian tradition and saints who lived on the British Isles.

Nun Martha continues to organise pilgrimages to the holy places in the UK and she does extensive work on promoting their lives and educating parishioners of the Sisterhood on the history of pre-norman England.

Our priests, Nun and readers are ready to help people who require information about Orthodox teaching and practice.

The Sisterhood continues to have good relations with the local Anglican priest and parishioners.

The Sisterhood plays an important role in supporting and developing the local Orthodox community in Kent and East Sussex

(d) Receiving Pilgrims

The Community welcomes pilgrims and helpers, many have contributed to voluntary work in the garden and helping with the church decoration, cooking, cleaning and other duties. A one-bedroom summer house was built by a few volunteers for parishioners and volunteers to stay overnight at Rocks Farm.

6 Risk Management

The Trustees have examined the major strategic business and operation risks which the Trust faces and confirm that systems have been established to enable regular reports to be produced so that the necessary steps can be taken to lessen these risks.
