Prophetic Resurrection Ministry
International

2020 year started very well but, like everyone, we have experienced the dramatic contrast between plans and reality. 2020 will not be forgotten in a hurry. Undoubtedly it will be known as a year of doing things differently and more creatively.

All of us at Prophetic Resurrection Ministry International faced unforeseen challenges. Our church services and premises were shut down for nine months due to the enforced Government restrictions for the health and safety of our congregants as a result of Covid-19 pandemic.

As a church, we have taken great inspiration from the ways our congregants, volunteers, pastors, prayer team and all the fellowship groups have dealt with these unprecedented times. They have done so well. It has also been heartening to see Facebook team and our prayer line team rise to the challenges of the unprecedented situation. Despite the closure of our church and shutdown of all weekly church services, our pastoral team worked exceptionally hard to deliver pastoral care to all congregants especially those affected by Covid-19 pandemic.

Our Weekly worship, prayers, bible knowledge and teachings were delivered through Social Media platforms. This was very pivotal in our ability to deliver words of comfort, healing, faith and hope to our congregants and to all Christians around the world.

If the year has shown us one thing, it is the fundamental necessity of believing and trusting in God at a time when all hopes were gone.

It was not possible to hold our annual summer holiday sports and evangelism day at the local park due to the Covid-19 pandemic.

INCORPORATION

The charitable company was incorporated on 12 December 2005 and commenced trading on the same date.

Significant activities

Achievements and performance 2020

Worship and prayers during 2020 were adapted to respond to the restrictions of the Covid-19 pandemic. During the times of closure enforced by the Government restrictions, worship and prayers were delivered through social media, especially Facebook.

A prayer line was established where all congregants and general public joined for daily prayers, inspiration, counselling and support. Through this a number of souls were won into the Church.

Multiple WhatsApp groups were also established to keep congregants connected and supported. The pastoral team were carrying out intercessional prayers during the period of lockdown. Our pastoral care team have continued to take care of those members of the congregation who are unwell, in need or in isolation.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Public benefit

Prophetic Resurrection Ministries International welcomes all within its communities and branches. At the heart of our pastoral care is the essence to meet the needs of our congregants and local communities both spiritual, soul and body.

The Trustees have assessed the disclosures made in the Trustees' report and consider that these sufficiently detail the significant activities undertaken in order to carry out the charity's aims for the public benefit. When planning the charity's activities, the Trustees have given regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit. The trustees raise awareness and understanding of Christian faith by various means including promoting the religious teaching, providing a recording studio for budding gospel musicians, producing CDs, counselling, training, support and providing live streams of our Sunday services to the world at large.

Our evangelism team regularly go out to preach the gospel in a variety of locations.

The outreach team are charged with visiting of the sick, those in prison and hospital.

All PRMI activities are available to Christians and non-Christian members.

The church is open to the world at large and there is no restriction to attendance of Church service. The wider community are encouraged to attend PRMI services, celebrating Christian's festivals including Easter, Christmas, New Year Eve Services.

The church has a vibrant youth ministry, overseas ministries, social media prayer ministry, counselling, pre-marital and marital counselling.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes a limited company, limited by guarantee, as defined by the Companies Act 2006.

Organisational structure

Structure, governance and management

The management of Prophetic Resurrection Ministries International (PRMI) is the responsibility of the Board of Trustees. The board of Trustees manage PRMI on a voluntary basis. The board meets from time to time to plan policies and ensure these policies are understood and implemented throughout the church.

The Board of Trustees also delegate some powers to the pastoral team to undertake projects and activities considered to be essential for the spiritual and social development of the members as well as in the local communities where the church serves.

Risk management

The Trustees have assessed the major risk to which the charity is exposed, in particular those relating to the operations and finances of the Charity, and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate its exposure to the major risk.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Prophetic Resurrection Ministry
International

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Prophetic Resurrection Ministry International ('the Company')

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31 December 2020.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Notes to the Financial Statements

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charitable company, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Companies Act 2006. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, as modified by the revaluation of certain assets.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Tangible fixed assets

Depreciation is provided at the following annual rates in order to write off each asset over its estimated useful life.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.

Pension costs and other post-retirement benefits

The charitable company operates a defined contribution pension scheme. Contributions payable to the charitable company's pension scheme are charged to the Statement of Financial Activities in the period to which they relate.
