Independent Examination of Music For People (M4P) Accounts

Financial year ending 31st December 2025

Background

This examination was conducted by:

Gary Barnett
5 Wharfside
Padworth
Reading
Berks
RG74JS

I have no formal training or qualification in accountancy but am considered appropriate to perform this examination. I have experience of setting and managing budgets during my working life. I also have some understanding of business balance sheets and profit and loss accounts. I received no fee for this review.

I have no relationship with either the operation or directors of M4P.

This review was conducted according to the guidance set out in Charity Commission Document CC32, Independent Examination of Charity Accounts: Directions and Guidance for Examiners

Outcome of the Examination

There were no matters of 'concern' or 'material significance' identified. Of the items reviewed, no errors in accounting were identified. The accounts were accurately reported.

One erroneous invoice was identified as having been submitted incorrectly by Giggleswick school (Giggleswick Deposit and Fee Transactions) but the actual amounts paid were confirmed to be correct. No further action was necessary.

Nature of the Examination

Accounts were prepared for review on an accruals basis although there were no party related transactions to be reported.

It was confirmed that the annual turnover was between £25k and £250k and was within the range where independent examination rather than professional audit is appropriate.

The accounts were presented in Xero software. The income and expenditure account and balance sheet were initially reviewed and selected areas were then checked in more detail by drilling into the individual line items within Xero. As Xero is directly linked to the bank accounts and invoices are uploaded the review was conducted entirely within Xero.

Going Concern

The purpose of M4P is to "To advance the education in and appreciation of music and associated arts by the public. In particular, to endeavour to encourage and facilitate lifelong learning, musical education, composition and performance with special regard to music which expresses the ideals and aims of the world's people towards the improvement of society" (Source, M4P website). This is achieved by running an annual summer music school. The ability to run the school is therefore essential to the aims of the charity.

M4P at year end had £46108.39 in current assets. This figure is greater than 25% of the total expected expenditure for 2025. i.e. above the minimum level determined by the committee to be sufficient to ensure that M4P can run a successful summer school in 2025. Longer term the committee wish to reduce this to nearer the 25% threshold by returning funds to students.

I have no relationship with either the operation or directors of M4P.

This review was conducted according to the guidance set out in Charity Commission Document CC32, Independent Examination of Charity Accounts: Directions and Guidance for Examiners

Outcome of the Examination

There were no matters of 'concern' or 'material significance' identified.

Of the items reviewed, no errors in accounting were identified. The accounts were accurately reported.

Nature of the Examination

Accounts were prepared for review on an accruals basis although there were no party related transactions to be reported.

It was confirmed that the annual turnover was between £25k and £250k and was within the range where independent examination rather than professional audit is appropriate.

The accounts were presented as an income and expenditure account and balance sheet. All income and expenditure were documented on a spreadsheet. Copies of bank statements showing transactions were also provided. Since all payments were made by bank transfer from the current account it was possible to correlate each payment recorded on the bank statements against the expenditure spreadsheet. As a result of this and because all of the significant payments were made to either Giggleswick School or summer school tutors, it was not felt necessary to verify any individual receipts against the expenditure spreadsheet.

During the examination clarifications were requested via e-mail, but no changes were required as a result of the examination process.

Going Concern

The purpose of M4P is to "To advance the education in and appreciation of music and associated arts by the public. In particular, to endeavour to encourage and facilitate lifelong learning, musical education, composition and performance with special regard to music which expresses the ideals and aims of the world's people towards the improvement of society" (Source, M4P website). This is achieved by running an annual summer music school. The ability to run the school is therefore essential to the aims of the charity.

Each year the cost of running the school is largely funded by the fees of the attendees. The typical annual expenditure is greater than the current year end cash in hand. The timing of the receipts of fees against the timing of the payments due can therefore be critical to ensure the successful running of the school.

M4P at year end had £43843 cash in hand. This figure is £4990 higher than the corresponding figure at the end of financial year 2022 which resulted in a successfully run school in 2023.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE DIRECTORS OF MUSIC FOR PEOPLE LIMITED. REGISTERED CHARITY 1122957

I report to the Directors on my examination of the accounts of the Music for People Ltd (the Charity) for the year ended 31st December 2022.

Responsibilities and basis of the report:

As Directors of the charity you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act");

I report in respect of my examination of the Charity's accounts which has been carried out under S145(1) of the Charities Act (income exceeding £25,000 but less than £1,000,000) and that, as a Voluntary Group, the Charity Commission's Independent Examiner's Checklist does not apply.

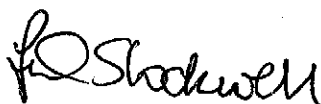

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. Accounting records were not kept in respect of the Charity as required by Section 130 of the Act; or
2. The accounts do not accord with those records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
