Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	We have had a most auspicious year for the charity. With the commencement of bhakti retreats at the Bhakti retreat centre Wales a flood of enthusiasm filled the community and a wave of new interest has come from seekers into alternative living, healthy eating and wellness. This coupled with a new regular bhakti retreat, which commenced in June has given a 'feel good' factor to the community. These bhakti retreats are based on the special days and occasions in the Vaisnava calendar. They are aimed at those who are practiced in bhakti and we have had very positive feedback from this, inspiring new donors to give regularly. The Vaisnava festivals are being observed nicely and namhatta programs have been spreading by word of mouth allowing us to arrange for more people to benefit. The food distribution program has been successful and we have received good contacts who ordered tiffins for their banker's investment events. We have been able to attend some music festivals, fetes and outside events, having a great opportunity to network with like-minded people. In this way we have shared food and philosophy and invited people to visit us. We have also invited people to take part in our retreat festivals and workshops. This has inspired us to get involved with more festivals like this in the coming year, as a good out-reach opportunity.

Donated goods for resale are measured at fair value on initial recognition, which is the expected proceeds from sale less the expected costs of sale, and recognised in 'Income from other trading activities' with the corresponding stock recognised in the balance sheet. Achievements and Performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	January 2023 began with an air of enthusiasm. The charity embarked upon the purchase of their first property in the UK, Tyddyn Y Pwll in Wales, a retreat facility with a farm house, two small cottages and workshop space. The initial down payment was made at the end of January and the completion was finalised on the 28th March. We moved in furniture and equipment and began to repair, refurbish, arrange and organise the space, to make it suitable for the first festival held on the 23rd April. We thereafter began to have monthly Bhakti retreats/festivals. On the 19th May we hosted and facilitated for a group of yoga practitioners to hold a retreat at the property and continued to host retreats like this about once a month. The opportunity of owning a retreat centre is a long cherished desire of the charity. We are then able to invite members of the community and guests to have the opportunity to take time out of life and be able to immerse themselves in a retreat environment and have time to meditate and reflect on themselves and the deep esoteric philosophy of the Veda. In this way people have told us that they go back more energised and empowered and positive. Not to mention being in a clean environment with pure air and water and food. The programs in London have been going on nicely especially the nama-hatta outreach programs have had a lot of positive feedback. The regular Sunday Sat sang was cancelled with more emphasis going to the nama-hatta programs instead. Kirtan programs have been giving a lot of positive energy into the community. We have been giving out blessed food on the street and in the markets with a lot of happiness from the members of the community and have been encouraged to continue with people giving donations to help with the costs. Yoga programs have picked up a lot in popularity on line with a steady amount of classes available. We honoured the travelling guests with arranging hall programs and festivals for them. These prove to be extremely popular events attracting people from all over the UK and abroad. All in all a very positive year with a lot of new avenues to explore and expand the field of our activities in accordance with the charities aims and objectives.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	For the year 2023, the charity had a gross income of £367,000 we had expenditure in that year of £182,000. That makes a net income of £185,000. The funds from the previous year were about £280,000. We bought the property in Wales at a value of £900,000 and the charity took a mortgage of £630,000. At the end of the year the charity paid off £100,000 from the mortgage. That reduced the mortgage to £520,000. At the end of the period the amount in the bank is £87,000. The charity has a property of a value of £900,000 and a mortgage of £520,000.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	Our reserve policy is £20,000. It has increased from the previous years of £5,000 due to the rise in expenditure costs.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	£87,000
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	n.a.
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	n.a
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	n.a

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47
Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted	Para 1.46
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46
Other		The value of any voluntary help received is not included in the accounts. The concept the charity has is to engage volunteers for their benefit. As a subsidiary note the charity also benefits but it's not in a clear financial way. Volunteers are often sporadic, spontaneous and unskilled. They help under guidance of a responsible staff member and it helps bring a feeling of belonging. Hence it is not included in the accounts financial gain.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

[The charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants].

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- children workshop

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The programs and workshops established after the July of 2021 continued into 2022 with no problems. We had a large increase in nam-hatta programs in different areas of the UK. The increase was from one program a month to a weekly program. We met new people in different areas of the UK especially in Lincolnshire and were able to liaise with different communities sharing the same ethics and values. This is proving to be a great outreach project, especially after the increase in isolation people felt after the covid pandemic. We especially received positive feedback from the older members of society, who told us they were very grateful to receive us in their homes and delighted in the delicious preparations of vegetarian snacks. They were happy to have kirtan in their homes and invite friends and neighbours for the event.

From February we started the Bhakti retreats in Skegness. We were limited to invite the general public due to the house being of residential use age. However these monthly programs started to prove to be of great value for us. It gave practical experience in arranging and organising retreats, based on 10 guests, over a 3 day period. We were able to arrange appropriate retreats using the Vedic calendars festivals and events. We made corresponding workshops and classes over the long weekend or 3 day event. We also had practical experience on how to arrange the meals ; breakfast, lunch and evening meal and accommodation, cleaning the rooms, arranging for bedding etc. We received helpful feedback from the guests regarding the programs, meals, pricing etc. which we have taken into consideration and we received donations from the guests.

There was change in the board of trustees. In April Benjamin Ball left the board and was replaced by Enio Lopes Araujo. In May we received a new member of the board namely Tarcisio Piucco.

Leading up to April 2023 we started to see flaws in the plans to build a retreat venue in Skegness. It was a project way over the charities budget and means and after careful consideration the board decided it was too much of a risk to continue with the project but instead to look into acquiring a new property that had the facility already. In April the decision was made to research a suitable property for retreats. In this regard we received a promise of a substantial donation towards the new property. In June we found a retreat centre in Wales with a farm house two renovated cottages and a yoga barn, we agreed that this was what we were looking for and made an offer. That offer was accepted in July 2022.

We started the process of looking for a charity mortgage and we received the confirmation of that in October 2022 with the Co-op bank. The summary of the year was after some confusion as to how to financially build the retreat centre in Skegness we made the bold decision to look for a new property with the help of a promised donation and guarantor.

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The year began for the charity overcast by a dark cloud of uncertainty. The pandemic was still a great threat to a return to normal and a mood of depression was felt in the community. We continued throughout the year to stay positive adapting to the different situations and by the end of the year a new energy was coming. Covid restrictions had lessened and staff were able to come back to work we ended the year feeling optimistic for 2022.

In January 2021 we continued with the zoom programs. Initially they had a positive appeal but as January continued the attendance dropped considerably. They were subsequently cancelled at the end of January with only the yoga online zoom class remaining.

With the lockdown and the Covid restrictions there was no activity for 2 months February and March.

From April we established a new weekly event Harinam and book & food distribution. This was a popular outdoor event connecting with new people and helping to bring a more positive consciousness to the community.

In July most of the restrictions were lifted and we re-opened the centre. We chose an auspicious day "Guru Purnima" and celebrated by inviting the community together for kirtan and Prasad.

From the July opening we re-introduced weekly programs, Sunday Sat sang, Thursday yoga, nama-hatta and festivals according to the vaisnava calendar.

At the end of September the regular weekly outdoor event was stopped but the food distribution continued on Saturdays.

In the beginning of October we began a weekly indoor kirtan event attracting new people.

From October the weekly programs were more established and a new influx of people started to come especially for bigger events.

We were able to start to re-employ our workers from the end of July and by October everyone was completely off furlough.

Rakesh resigned from the board of trustees in July 2021.

We continued with the retreat project in Skegness. From March we managed the maintenance and planting on the land. In October we put in for planning for a barn/reception, 10 Eco cottages, a large greenhouse and parking. Full planning permission was granted on December the 16th subject to the conditions outlined in the planning consent.

As a summary for the year, we got off to a rocky start but as the year continued and we were able to be flexible enough to keep an energy going, things improved greatly and by the end of the year, programs were re-established and we received the good news that our planning application for the retreat centre was approved.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

We had a positive outlook for the start of 2020. Our regular programs at the centre were running smoothly. In the beginning of March the pandemic was looming and we took a decision to be conscious of the possible effect of the Covid and closed the centre for one month. On the 23rd of March however the government announced a national lockdown. Due to the Covid restrictions we were not able to comply with the regulations and therefore the centre has remained closed for the rest of the year. We adapted to the situation by arranging some outdoor programs. In September and October we began outdoor Mantra Meditation and Kirtan events and also hired places suitable for our Sunday Nama Hatta events and Yoga workshops. These proved to be very successful with new people. We received a lot of positive feedback especially because the guests were feeling quite despondent due to the Covid restrictions and it gave opportunity to get together. However the second lockdown was announced in the beginning of November and therefore these events had to be stopped also. Since the beginning of December we began a series of Zoom programs. The regular programs we had at the centre namely Yoga meditation and Vedic discussion we replicated in a Zoom style format. This provided an opportunity to keep regular programs running and created a workshop style space for new people to get involved in yoga and meditation from the comfort of their own home. It's a stable format that is not effected by the Covid restrictions or the weather. So we are looking into keeping this until the foreseeable future. In December we re-established our Prasad distribution service posting healthy tasty vegetarian snacks to our community members and new people. This was received so well. We had many people writing back to us and also sending donations.

Due to the volatile year we tried to innovate by employing people in different areas to accommodate our new outdoor programs and events online. However we had to put them on furlough when the lockdowns happened and due to the centre being closed.

The board of trustees changed. First of all Benjamin Ball joined as a trustee in October and in the beginning of November Rakesh Guran stepped down from being the chairman. In the beginning of November Ly Luft took the position of Chairman.

The Skegness retreat project was confirmed at the beginning of November when a lease for the land was arranged and put in the charity's name. We had 4 days of meetings to discuss the project and assume the necessary boundaries and the maintenance of the area. We discussed ideas of the retreat concept. It was decided that we will investigate into the appropriate planning for small glamping style accommodation to be put up around the pond and a possible barn to be erected.

Looking into the new year 2021, we are a little apprehensive due to the experiences of 2020. Therefore we have decided to continue with our zoom programs and keep aware of the current policy's suggested for the pandemic. The centre will remain closed and the employees will be kept on furlough until such a time as when we can safely re-open the centre.
