The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 July 2022. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Why we exist

Hope and Play aims to bring hope to children who are denied hope through the circumstances and environment which they find themselves in. This is reflected in our charity's objects, which are:

- (1) To relieve the needs of children, in particular but not exclusively those affected by conflict, occupation or poverty, by providing items, services and facilities calculated to relieve their needs and by raising awareness amongst the public of their circumstances;
- (2) To advance education for children for the public benefit by providing and assisting in the provision of facilities for education;
- (3) To provide or assist in the provision of facilities in the interests of social welfare for recreation or other leisure time occupation of children who have need of such facilities by reason of financial hardship or social or other detrimental circumstances with the object of improving their conditions of life.

All children suffering physical, emotional and educational hardships are deserving of support. Our focus is on Palestinian children under occupation, under siege, or in refugee camps in the West Bank, Gaza and the Middle East.

The best long-term approach to resolving the hardships these children face is to remove the causes of those hardships primarily the occupation, the siege and life as refugees. Many charities, NGOs and activists rightly focus on these issues. Our focus has remained more on the near-term alleviating immediate suffering, and equipping children as much as possible with the capabilities to recover, and hoping in doing so to better equip them to build positive futures.

This year once again our work was entirely with Palestinian children in the West Bank where they continue to suffer brutal occupation and in Gaza where aside from regular bombardments, they remain living under an illegal siege.

Our philosophy is to deliver our programmes through local, trusted community organisations, in that way providing some much needed employment in the service of alleviating the suffering of the children.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Administration, Product and Marketing costs

Funding for Hope and Play came primarily through donations, through the Hope and Play shop, and grants. Our overarching philosophy is that as much as possible of funds raised should go to the delivery of projects on the ground, and as such, the charity has no paid employees or paid trustees. All direct UK activity was carried out on a voluntary basis by our kind supporters or by the trustees – whether in the design of items for our shop, in shop fulfilment activities, in the preparation of these accounts, or in managing our social media and online presence.

Donations and Grants

Donations from the general public, from organisations, and through grants were spent on projects on the ground. Aside from financial costs (e.g. credit card or PayPal fees), none was retained in the UK or used for any UK activity.

All UK-based organisational costs, such as professional fundraisers and website development, were funded by donations from trustees and their families.

We remain grateful to those who donated their professional services gratis to support us, in particular for all accountancy-related activities.

We are also grateful as always for our kind donors and supporters, without whom none of our activities would be possible.

Shop

Our primary fundraising was once again through our shop, and predominantly sales for Christmas and New Year.

Costs relating to the shop, mostly advertising, products (where these were purchased rather than donated) and postage, were entirely funded from shop sales, not from donations.

Of special note, once again, was our key supporter Jackie and her family and friends, who for the seventh year running designed our calendars and an assortment of products pro-bono, and part funded their production. We remain indebted to her and her family for their generosity of heart, time and money.

Hope and Play does not maintain offices or employees in the occupied Palestinian territories or in the refugee camps in the area, so all work is delivered through our grassroots partners on the ground. So most importantly, we are grateful to these partners who have the most difficult tasks of making these projects a reality in the harshest and most challenging of environments.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

What we have done this year

We continued our focus on trauma therapy in Gaza as we have for the last few years. We provided funding for the delivery of a trauma programme to 400 children in 4 different locations across the Gaza strip for a period of 10 months starting in December 2021, and running into our next financial year. Our grassroots partners, the Canaan Institute of Pedagogy, oversaw the programme. The programme was expanded and amended to take into consideration the impact of Covid, which was compounded within Gaza due to the Israeli military blockade which restricted availability of medical supplies.

In addition we provided funding through a specific fundraising initiative, for the stocking and management of a children's library in Hai Salatein in memory of long-time Palestinian supporter and activist, Harald Molgaard. This was delivered after the end of this financial year.

As in previous years, we also hosted a number of birthday parties in Gaza on behalf of our donors, each celebrated with between 30 and 50 children, and providing a rare opportunity for celebration. The donations funded the parties as well as providing additional funding for the trauma therapy programmes.

In making all decisions regarding our activities, the trustees have had due regard to the commission's public benefit guidance.

3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of Section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).
