Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

- A) to advance the religion of Islam, by means of but not exclusively promoting the teaching and tenets of Islam for the benefit of all and to meet the needs of the muslim community;
- B) to advance the religion of Islam, by means of but not exclusively, building or maintain, or assisting in the building or maintenance, of places or facilities of worship, Islamic institutions or Muslim cemeteries;
- C) to relieve financial need and suffering among victims of natural or other kinds of disaster in the form of money or such other means as the trustees shall determine;
- D) To promote any other charitable purpose for the benefit of muslims and the general public that the trustees from time to time may determine.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Jame Trust supported the construction and refurbishment of the Jame Masjid (Mosque) Leicester for the benefit of the public, in particular the Muslim community. Due to the ever increasing Muslim community in Leicester and the deteriorating state of the old masjid a major construction and refurbishment was carried out.

The project was completed in 2010. As a result the capacity of the prayer facility was increased from 1,000 to 2,000 people along with new classrooms for the students.

The Jame Masjid provides a range of services to the community including the 5 daily prayers and a number of weekly programmes for the community.

Jame Masjid provides a range of courses for both boys and girls. The students range from ages 5 to 25 years. Commencing from the very basics of the Arabic language, the children can continue their education at the Jame until a mature age until qualifying as scholars. Most of the courses are conveniently timed to allow students to simultaneously benefit from their main schooling.

For the benefit of the local community the Jame Masjid also provides advice on all domestic, social and welfare issues based on Shariah principles

Recognised by the Leicester City Council, Jame Masjid provides the community with full death and burial services including transport.

- Education / training
- the prevention or relief of poverty
- overseas aid / famine relief
- religious activities

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Income & Expenditure

During the year, collected donations were utilised on the maintenance of the Jame Masjid and also on various relief projects around the world (details in section D below).

Volunteers

The charity is grateful for the unstinting efforts of its volunteers who are involved in service provision and fundraising. It has not been possible to quantify the sterling efforts of our volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

During the year the Trust collected £80,950 of which £73,575 (unrestricted) was for the maintenance of the Jame Masjid. A further £7,375 was also collected for providing humanitarian relief around the world. These funds were distributed to the following UK registered charities:

1. £1,100 Rahma (Mercy)
2. £2,460 Ummah Welfare Trust
3. £500 LIA Relief Trust
4. £3,315 Caravan of Mercy
