Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Jame Trust supported the construction and refurbishment of the Jame Masjid (Mosque) Leicester for the benefit of the public, in particular the Muslim community. Due to the ever increasing Muslim community in Leicester and the deteriorating state of the old masjid a major construction and refurbishment was carried out.

The project was completed in 2010. As a result the capacity of the prayer facility was increased from 1,000 to 2,000 people along with new classrooms for the students.

The Jame Masjid provides a range of services to the community including the 5 daily prayers and a number of weekly programmes for the community.

Jame Masjid provides a range of courses for both boys and girls. The students range from ages 5 to 25 years. Commencing from the very basics of the Arabic language, the children can continue their education at the Jame until a mature age until qualifying as scholars. Most of the courses are conveniently timed to allow students to simultaneously benefit from their main schooling.

For the benefit of the local community the Jame Masjid also provides advice on all domestic, social and welfare issues based on Shariah principles Recognised by the Leicester City Council, Jame Masjid provides the community with full death and burial services including transport.

- Education / training
- the prevention or relief of poverty
- overseas aid / famine relief

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *)

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
