Independent examiners' report
For the year ended 30 June 2023

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act.have not been met; or
2. To which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Report of the Management Committee
For the year ended 30 June 2023

The trustees present their report for the financial statement for the year ended 30 June 2023.

Objectives

The company is to exist as a non-profit to promote our core objectives;

- (1) To promote, by means that are exclusively charitable under the laws of England and Wales, the conservation and protection of both wild and captive wildlife, by actively assisting in the development of projects to alleviate injury, sickness, ill-treatment, neglect or threat to these animals and their environment. In particular but not limited to the protection and development of existing Wildlife SOS rescue and rehabilitation centres in India for Sloth Bears, Asian Elephants, Tigers, Leopards, Deer and other wildlife as well as domestic animals while promoting animal welfare and compassion towards animals.
- (2) To advance public education, in particular by providing educational programs that raise public awareness both nationally and internationally, of the problems facing wild and captive wildlife. By supporting and conducting research initiatives that investigate the long-term sustainability of wildlife and the environment – plus, where possible, publishing the useful results of such research in a manner that would promote animal welfare and compassion towards animals.
- (3) To promote benefit of indigenous tribes and local communities, in India by:
 - (a) Creating Alternative Livelihood opportunities through seed funding
 - (b) Providing educational support to tribal children to improve career prospects
 - (c) Supporting advancement of education and skill training for tribal communities;
 - (d) Helping to improve their quality of life by addressing poverty alleviation;
 - (e) Promoting good health & disease management in tribal communities.
 - (f) Empowering women in the tribal communities
 - (g) Preventing child labor & child marriage in tribal communities

Trustees

The trustees who served during the year:

Kartick Satyanarayan

Trustees Responsibilities

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of the charitable company and of the income and expenses during the course of that year.

In preparing the accounts the trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonably prudent
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at the time the financial position of the charitable company and to enable them to ensure that the statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence take reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Annual Review

The majority of the funds raised were deployed to achieve the objectives of Wildlife SOS while ensuring awareness and education targets were also achieved as well as social impact on the target communities and target groups. Targets were also to maintain stability in support of our Indian parent company.
