Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Charity Constitution dated 14 th October 2008
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	Unincorporated Association
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Trustees are appointed at a Trustee Meeting. New Trustees are selected based on their suitability to offer a broad range of skills relevant to the role. Previous involvement and/or support of the Charity & an understanding of the Charity's aims is beneficial but not essential.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

In addition to the funds raised by Walser's Tanzania Charity, funds are generated by supporters in the Republic of Ireland & Germany. These additional funds are transferred directly to Tanzania for the sole purpose of carrying out the objects of Walser's Tanzania Charity as set out in its constitution.

The Charity has in place a safeguarding policy and has particular regard to its beneficiaries who are children or vulnerable adults and is committed to ensuring its safeguarding practice reflects statutory responsibilities, government guidance and complies with best practice and Charity Commission requirements.

The Charity has a privacy policy in place as required under GDPR.

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

- The relief of poverty and suffering but not exclusively through the provision of clean water to the village of Ifunda, Tanzania and such other parts of Tanzania as the Trustees may decide.
- The advancement of education of young people in particular in the village of Ifunda, Tanzania and such other parts of Tanzania as the Trustees may decide.
- The relief of sickness, the protection and preservation of health in particular but not exclusively in the village of Ifunda, Tanzania and other parts of Tanzania as the trustees may decide.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Main Activities:

- Operation of an Educational Sponsorship Scheme to support students in their education at primary, secondary & tertiary level.
- Financial Support to the Ifunda Mission Vocational Training Centre to ensure it continues to provide facilities fit for purpose.
- Financial support to Ifunda schools; Ihemi, Kibaoni, Ifunda, Masumbo & Isupilo primary schools & Lyandembela Secondary school. (to provide teaching aids and fund improvements to school facilities for the benefit of all students at the schools, not only students sponsored by the Charity)
- Financial Support to ICTC (tuition provision) who provide additional tuition for primary and secondary students to improve performance and results in national exams.
- Project work - financial support for local initiatives identified by the charity in line with the objects of the charity as set out in its constitution.

All on-going charity activities and any new activities planned are undertaken with due regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit. The Trustee Team are familiar with this guidance.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

Walser's Tanzania Charity operates entirely with voluntary staff in the UK for administration, fundraising and participation in annual visits. These Charity volunteers plus volunteer partners in Republic of Ireland & Germany allow the Charity to operate with minimum costs. We are extremely grateful to our volunteers for their valuable contribution.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

A minimum of one charity visit to Ifunda is undertaken each year by Trustees and other chosen volunteers to monitor the progress of charity activities.

On-going activities

- Educational Sponsorship Programme supporting circa 320 students.
- Continued development of the UK school link relationships as a means of fundraising
- Financial support to local Ifunda schools
- Financial support to the Vocational Training Centre
- Financial support to ICTC (tuition centre)
- Financial support to St Mary Goretti Girls Hostel
- Hardship fund for students in need

Set out on pages

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
