Trustee selection methods
(eg. appointed by, elected by)

- i. There must be at least three trustees. Every future trustee shall be appointed by a resolution of the trustees passed at a special meeting called under clause 15 of the governing document and with the agreement of our religious leader.
- ii. In selecting individuals for appointment as trustees, the trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the charity.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The trustees must apply the income of the charity in furtherance of the following objects:

- I. The relief of poverty and sickness anywhere in the world including U.K. and in particular amongst those affected by natural disasters, or by wars and other conflicts, by the provision of financial or other assistance including medicines, shelter, food, clothing, sanitation, clean drinking water, medical camps and maternity homes.
- II. To advance the education of those persons in need anywhere in the world including U.K. and in particular regards to orphans, widows and unemployed by the provision of training centres, workshops, education centres and sponsorship for the higher education including financial aid and support to the institutions but not limited to books, furniture, electronic hardware and teacher training.
- III. To promote the teaching of the Islamic faith and culture to non-believers and to work towards creating harmony between various religious groups, though print and electronic media in particular to work closely with Crescent Community Radio Rochdale.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The main activities undertaken were:

- Providing grants to organisations

Charity commission requires the trustees of a charity to:

- Select suitable accounting policies, apply them consistently;
- Make judgement and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless there is a reason to believe that the Association will not continue for the foreseeable future.

The Trustees are responsible for the keeping of proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charity Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the association and hence to take reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity has been using donations they receive to achieve the objects set in their governing document such as providing grants to Al Munir Foundation for food packs, sponsoring students, helping with school expenses, helping hospital and help relieve poverty in Pakistan. Please see the notes for more information. The charity has also managed to rebuild Jamia masjid Ghausia in town of Abbasspur which was started back in 2019 Ramadhan.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity holds £2,000 in reserve in case of an emergency and to cover running expenses.
