INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT ON THE ACCOUNTS TO THE MEMBERS OF CHIPPING SHOW LIMITED

I report on the accounts of the Company for the year ended 30th September 2025, which are set out on pages 1 to 8.

RESPECTIVE RESPONSIBILITIES OF TRUSTEES AND EXAMINER

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for the year and that an independent examination is needed.

Having satisfied myself that the company is not subject to audit under charity or company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to :

- ◆ examine the financial statements under section 145 of the Act;
- ◆ follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145 (5)(b) of the Act; and
- ◆ state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

BASIS OF INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT

My examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning such matters.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S STATEMENT

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - ◆ to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; and
 - ◆ to prepare financial statements which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities
2. have not been met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the financial statements to be reached.

CHIPPING SHOW LIMITED

Report of the Trustees for the year ended 30th September 2022

Activities during this period: As in previous years our Annual Show was a great success. Our crowds were treated to a display of the finest farm animals, horses, horticulture and local crafts from miles around, our main ring attraction of Atkinson Action Horses was greatly received by all. Our income from the hire of our field throughout the year made yet again a good contribution to our funds. Our Auction of Cheeses from the Cheese exhibit tent was auctioned on show day and the proceeds split between show day expenses and The Ukraine Disaster. We provide free entry for children attending the two village schools. Details of income received and expenses paid are summarised on the attached pages.

Objects of the Charity:

The advancement of Agriculture, Horticulture and Rural Crafts for the benefit of the public by holding an Annual Show.

The Future:

It is the committee's intent that the Company continues to hold and develop the Agricultural and Horticultural Show on an annual basis on land owned by the Company.

Reserves Policy:

The committee holds sufficient funds in the reserve to ensure that the Company can meet its liabilities for the following year's show.

Review of Major Risks:

Risk assessments have been carried out for the show period and the remainder of the year. The necessary systems have been established to mitigate these assessed risks. The risks considered have included Public Liability, Officers Liability and Health and Safety. The Company carries Public Liability Insurance.

Specific Investment Powers:

The Committee in open meetings make decisions relating to investments.

Responsibilities of the Trustees:

The Trustees are responsible to maintain proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Charity. The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding assets of the Charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention of fraud or other irregularities.

The trustees and Committee have approved the Accounts for the year ending 30th September 2022 at our AGM held on 28th November 2022
