Structure, Governance and Management

Organisation

The organisation is managed by the Trustees who meet regularly to discuss strategic matters and various aspects of responsibility which are allocated between them.

We have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing our aim and objectives and in planning our future activities. In particular, the trustees consider how planned activities will contribute to the aims and objectives they have set.

Trustees

The training and induction provided for Trustees will depend on their existing experience. Where necessary training on charity and financial matters is tailored specifically to the individual

Risk Management

The Trustees are committed to an ongoing policy of identifying, monitoring and managing risks that might adversely affect the operation and reputation of the Charity, assessing the likelihood of occurrence and means of mitigating them. The Trustees are satisfied that appropriate structures are in place to identify and manage the major risks facing the Charity.

In view of the Covid situation, the Trustees have assessed the going concern impact of the Charity. The Charity has continued to receive its direct debit donations during this period. The Trustees had also taken action to defer its bank loan repayments for 6 months. As a protective measure, the Charity also applied for and received a Bounce back loan of £50,000. In addition, the Charity will receive its gift aid from HMRC for the year ending 30 September 2020. Taking all these into account, the Trustees are confident of the Charity's going concern.

Objectives and activities

The objective for which the Charity is established are to be furthered primarily in the United Kingdom but also in Punjab (India) and other parts of the world as the directors from time to time see fit.

The Charity's objectives to be furthered in the area of benefit are:

- To advance the Sikh religion by preaching and promoting its teachings, establishing and maintaining a Gurdwara or Gurdwaras, conducting services, education programmes and observances based on the tenets and doctrines of the faith, and establishing and maintaining religious schools of instruction for children, young people and adults.
- To relieve poverty by providing food, clothing, shelter and other necessities of life to people in poverty or without visible means of support and to the elderly, ill and disabled people of low or modest income and in need.
- To advance education, in particular by establishing, maintaining or support public elementary schools and to work cooperatively with Governments in the United Kingdom and other countries, and with other charitable organisations to accomplish these purposes.
- To promote health and relieve sickness.

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts; you consider that the audit requirement of section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the Act) does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts (under Section 43 (3) (a) of the 1993 Act) and to state on the basis of procedures specified in the general directions given by the Charity Commissioners under section 43 (7) (b) of the Act, whether particular matters have come to our attention.

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with our examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the 1993 Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the 1993 Act;
- have not been met; or
- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
