EUROPEAN ACADEMY FOR JEWISH LITURGY

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 NOVEMBER 2024

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 30 November 2024. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The main objectives of the European Academy for Jewish Liturgy (EAJL) are to train people to be inspired leaders of Jewish prayer and worship through studying liturgical traditions, history, melodies and cantillations, preserving these traditions for future generations, and mentoring and providing trained leaders of prayer particularly but not exclusively in small and remote communities.

Significant activities

The charity provides services to individuals and communities in the UK and Europe and its activities fall under three main categories:

One-to-one Mentoring Programme
Seminars and courses
Consultancy

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Achievements for the period December 2023 to November 2024

- Continued the provision of invaluable training to community prayer leaders through EAJL's One-to-One Mentoring Programme.
- Continued the training of our high-level Ba'al Tefillah Diploma students.
- The fifth EAJL Online Learning Day in the summer was a great success on the topic of Piyyutim in Ashkenazi and Sephardi traditions. We welcomed teachers from both Ashkenazi and Sephardi backgrounds including 2 new teachers for EAJL Cantor Daniel Halfon in Jerusalem and Efraim Kahn from the European Institute of Jewish Music in Paris.
- We continued our programme of online courses on Shabbat services with Shabbat Musaf led by Cantor Brian Mayer in USA, followed by Shabbat Mincha led by Cantor Jack Chomsky based in Jerusalem, another new teacher for EAJL, thus expanding our network.
- Continuing to run these courses online enables us to reach more students and access learning from teachers from across the world.
- We started our Sephardi Shabbat services programme with Nachshon Rodrigues Pereira (from the Netherlands) teaching Kabbalat Shabbat/Arvit in the Spanish and Portuguese tradition of the Bendigamos in Amsterdam. This proved to be a very popular course and students were very keen to continue accessing learning and connecting to other in this tradition.
- We ran a new course on Shiva Minyan and how to hold a community in the mourning period. This was a new style of course with 3 teachers, Rabbi Joel Levy (Israel), Chazan Jalda Reblin (Germany) and Holly Blue Hawkins (USA). This was well attended with participants from across the world.
- EAJL continued to work closely with Masorti Europe on reaching more Masorti communities.
- EAJL continued to develop the relationship with Masorti UK and Masorti Europe and took part in the Yom Masorti European conference in May in London, leading workshops and running an information stand.
- EAJL ran a very successful T'filla Leaders Residential Retreat in Oxfordshire in July 2024. This received excellent feedback and welcomed both previous and new students from 10 denominations. Being able to pray together across our diversity of traditions is a highlight of EAJL, proving our strength as a pluralist organisation.
- We continued to develop our website to provide accessible information for those seeking support from EAJL

FINANCIAL REVIEW

EAJL's net assets amounted to £26,652 at 30 November 2023, a decrease of £5,652 over the position in the previous year. The Trustees consider that this level of reserves is sufficient to enable EAJL to carry out its objectives. The main source of revenue comes from the provision of mentoring services for students. This activity enables EAJL to train future leaders of Jewish prayer and worship. The Trustees review the financial position on a regular basis to ensure that it can meet its obligations as and when they fall due.

FUTURE PLANS

Objectives for the period from December 2023 to November 2024.

- The charity will be building on the success of its past and current activities. In particular:
- EAJL will continue to provide customised training via its One-to-One Mentoring Programme.
- EAJL's high-level programme - the Ba'al Tefillah Diploma programme will continue to develop and research and planning will continue in the development of the Cantorial S'micha programme.
- Planning for EAJL online courses will continue, with both the 2 year plan of shabbat service courses and one off online courses.
- Our 2024 summer programme at the Conservative Yeshiva in Jerusalem will focus on weekday prayer.
- We will be planning and launching our first T'filla Leaders' Retreat in Germany in July.
- Continued work will be done to increase awareness of EAJL's work through its collaboration with Masorti UK and Masorti Europe.
- To increase accessibility of EAJL's courses and one to one learning through offering a number of free events per year plus enabling students to access subsidies through finding funding through Masorti Olami, JJBS and any other funding opportunities.
- To streamline some of EAJL's admin and finance activities through development of the website and online forms and software.

EUROPEAN ACADEMY FOR JEWISH LITURGY

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 NOVEMBER 2024

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charitable company, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Companies Act 2006. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Grants offered subject to conditions which have not been met at the year end date are noted as a commitment but not accrued as expenditure.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 30 November 2022. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The main objectives of the European Academy for Jewish Liturgy (EAJL) are to train people to be inspired leaders of Jewish prayer and worship through studying liturgical traditions, history, melodies and cantillations, preserving these traditions for future generations, and mentoring and providing trained leaders of prayer particularly but not exclusively in small and remote communities.

Significant activities

The charity provides services to individuals and communities in the UK and Europe and its activities fall under three main categories:

One-to-one Mentoring Programme

Seminars and courses

Consultancy

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Objectives and achievements in 2021 -2022

EAJL's achievements include:

- Continued and commenced training of our high-level Ba'al Tefillah Diploma students, introducing new students to this course increasing those studying to 8 and celebrating the graduation of one of the students.
- Continued the provision of invaluable training to community prayer leaders through EAJL's One-to-One Mentoring Programme.
- The third EAJL Online Learning Day in the summer was a great success, featuring teachers in both Sephardi and Ashkenazi traditions.
- We endeavoured to run a Sephardi track alongside the regular Ashkenazi track in all seminars and online study courses but take up was low for a number of reasons, leading us to plan a more directed approach for next year (see below)
- Continuous online courses over the year covered topics such as: Shabbat l'Chol; Singing the Haggadah (one in the Ashkenazi tradition and one in the Baghdadi tradition); Eicha, Kabbalat Shabbat and Ma'ariv for Shabbat and Chanukah song sessions in both Ashkenazi and Sephardi traditions.
- We increased the number of teachers for our online courses
- Some courses were led by EAJL alumni: Ba'alat Tefillah Saralee Shrell Fox (based in Jerusalem) and Ba'al Tefillah Simon Gordon (based in London).
- We continued to train our first Cantorial Smicha student (in the Sephardi tradition).
- EAJL Retreat: For the first time in four years we were able to run the EAJL T'filla Leaders Retreat in person in Oxfordshire. 23 people attended and it was extremely successful
- EAJL continued to be recognised as one of the five major providers of learning for Masorti Europe.
- EAJL continued to develop the relationship with Masorti UK and Masorti Europe and the Conservative Yeshiva in Jerusalem
- EAJL continued to try to reach more students across the world to increase accessibility to our courses and teaching.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

EAJL's net assets amounted to £32,498 at 30 November 2022, an increase of £6,290 over the position in the previous year. The Trustees consider that this level of reserves is sufficient to enable EAJL to carry out its objectives. The main source of revenue comes from the provision of mentoring services for students. This activity enables EAJL to train future leaders of Jewish prayer and worship. The Trustees review the financial position on a regular basis to ensure that it can meet its obligations as and when they fall due.

FUTURE PLANS
OBJECTIVES FOR 2022-2023

The charity will be building on the success of its past and current activities. In particular:

- We will continue to develop our website and financial systems to make these more efficient and cost effective
- EAJL will plan and run its programme in the Conservative Yeshiva summer programme in Jerusalem in July 2023.
- EAJL will continue to provide customised training via its One-to-One Mentoring Programme.
- EAJL will continue to train t'filla leaders in our Ba'al T'filla and Cantorial Smicha programmes
- Planning for EAJL online courses will continue on the two year programme plan, with more bespoke courses for French Masorti communities in collaboration with the communities
- EAJL will plan and run our fourth online learning day in July 2023.
- Continued work will be done to increase awareness of EAJL's work through its collaboration with Masorti UK.
- A new generation continues the work of EAJL with the support of its founders.
- EAJL's two high-level programmes - the Ba'al Tefillah Diploma programme and the Cantorial S'micha programme - will continue to develop.
- EAJL will continue to develop our training and programmes both online and in person and endeavour to make our learning relevant and accessible, including financially.

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 NOVEMBER 2022

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charitable company, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Companies Act 2006. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Grants offered subject to conditions which have not been met at the year end date are noted as a commitment but not accrued as expenditure.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.
