Trustees' report and financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2025

The trustees of Universal Ease to Redress present their report and financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2024 which have been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice, "Accounting and Reporting by Charities issued in January 2015 (The FRSSE)

Structure, governance and management

The charity is organised so that the trustees meet regularly to manage its affairs. The day to day administration of the charity is managed by the trustees' chair.

Governing document

Universal Ease to Redress is a charitable organisation and registered on the 20th March 2009. The charity is governed by a constitution adopted 9 June 2008 as amended by special resolution 8 March 2009 as amended on 27 Oct 2018.

Our aims and objectives.

Purpose and aims

The objects of the charity are:

The charity is to promote human rights (as out in the universal declaration of human rights and subsequent United Nations Conventions and Declarations), in particular the prevention of torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, throughout the world by all or any of the following means;

1. Monitoring abuses of human rights
11. Obtaining redress for the victims of human rights abuse
111. Relieving need among the victims of human rights abuse
- IV. Educating the public about human rights
- V. Eliminating infringements of human rights

Ensuring our work delivers our aims

We review our aims, objectives and activities each year. This review looks at what we achieved and the outcomes of our work in the previous 12 months. The review looks at the success of each key activity and the benefits they have brought to those groups of people we are set up to help. The review also helps us to ensure our aim, objectives and activities remained focused on our stated purposes.

How our activities deliver public benefit

Our main activities and who we try to help are described below. All our charitable activities focus on promoting human rights.

- a. Prevention of torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment by monitoring abuses of human rights
- b. Reaching out to those that are victims of human rights abuse and obtaining redress
- c. Educating the public human rights and eliminating infringements of human rights.

UNIVERSAL EASE TO REDRESS

Trustees' report and financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2025

Financial review

During the year, income of £35,754.00 (thirty five thousand seven hundred and fifty four pounds) was received as voluntary donations and restricted funds. The net excess income for the period as shown in the financial statements for the period was £161 (one hundred sixty one pounds).

Responsibilities of the trustees

Charity law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable trust as at the balance sheet and of its incoming resources and applications of resources, including income and expenditure, for the financial year.

In preparing those financial statements the trustees should follow the best practice and;

- * Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- * Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- * Prepare the financial statements on the ongoing basis unless it is in appropriate to presume that the charity will continue on that basis.

The trustees are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enables them to ensure ensure that the financial statements comply with Companies Act 2006. The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Members of the board of trustees

Members of the board of trustees, and trustees for the purpose of charity law, who served during the year and up to the date report are set out on page 1.

There was no resignation during the period under review.

In accordance with charity law, as trustees, we certify that;

So far as we are aware, there is no relevant information of which the charity's accountants are unaware and as the trustees of the charity we have taken all steps that we ought to have taken in order to make ourselves aware of any relevant information and to establish that the charity's accountants are aware of that information.

The report has been prepared,

By order of trustees:

Patrick Stewart
Trustee/Chair

UNIVERSAL EASE TO REDRESS

Independent examiners' report to the members of Universal Ease to Redress

We examined the accounts and the financial statements on pages 5 to 8 which have been prepared under historical cost accounting convention and in accordance with the applicable accounting standard Board.

Respective responsibilities of directors and accountants.

As described on page 3, the company directors are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. It is our responsibility to examine the accounts and based on our examination, to report our opinion to the shareholders.

Our examination was not an audit as the company directors believe that the company is exempt from an audit.

Basis of opinion.

We conducted our examination in accordance with the appropriate standards for reporting accountants issued by the Auditing Practices Board. The examination consisted of comparing the accounting records kept by the company and making appropriate inquiries of the directors of the company, as we considered necessary for the purpose of this report.

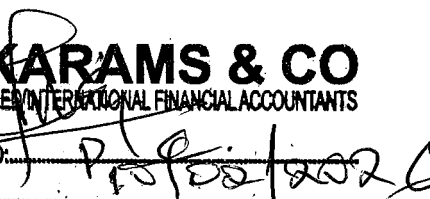

Opinion

The charity satisfied the conditions for exemption from an audit of accounts for the year according to section 477 of the company Act 2006

The accounts are in agreement with those accounting records as required by the accounting standards of company Act 2006.

The accounts are in agreement with the provisions applicable to companies subject to the small companies regime.

We have not been instructed to carry out an audit or a review of the financial statements of Universal Ease To Redress. For this reason, we have not verified the accuracy or completeness of the accounting records of information and explanations that were given to us and we do not, therefore, express any opinion on the statutory financial statements.

UNIVERSAL EASE TO REDRESS

Trustees' report and financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2024

Financial review

During the year, income of £28,108 (twenty eighty one hundred and eight pounds) was received as voluntary donations and restricted funds. The net excess income for the period as shown in the financial statements for the period was £343.00 three hundred and forty three pounds.

Responsibilities of the trustees

Charity law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable trust as at the balance sheet and of its of its incoming resources and applications of resources, including income and expenditure, for the financial year.

In preparing those financial statements the trustees should follow the best practice and;

- * Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- * Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- * Prepare the financial statements on the ongoing basis unless it is in appropriate to presume that the charity will continue on that basis.

The trustees are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enables them to ensure ensure that the financial statements comply with Companies Act 2006. The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Members of the board of trustees

Members of the board of trustees, and trustees for the purpose of charity law, who served during the year and up to the date report are set out on page 1.

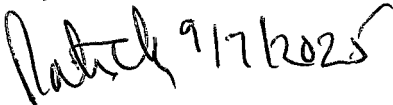

There was no resignation during the period under review.

In accordance with charity law, as trustees, we certify that;

So far as we are aware, there is no relevant information of which the charity's accountants are unaware and as the trustees of the charity we have taken all steps that we ought to have taken in order to make ourselves aware of any relevant information and to establish that the charity's accountants are aware of that information.

The report has been prepared,

By order of trustees:

UNIVERSAL EASE TO REDRESS

Independent examiners' report to the members of Universal Ease to Redress

We examined the accounts and the financial statements on pages 5 to 8 which have been prepared under historical cost accounting convention and in accordance with the applicable accounting standard Board.

Respective responsibilities of directors and accountants.

As described on page 3, the company directors are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. It is our responsibility to examine the accounts and based on our examination, to report our opinion to the shareholders.

Our examination was not an audit as the company directors believe that the company is exempt from an audit.

Basis of opinion.

We conducted our examination in accordance with the appropriate standards for reporting accountants issued by the Auditing Practices Board. The examination consisted of comparing the accounting records kept by the company and making appropriate inquiries of the directors of the company, as we considered necessary for the purpose of this report.

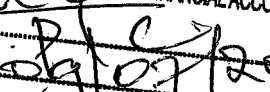

Opinion

The charity satisfied the conditions for exemption from an audit of accounts for the year according to section 477 of the company Act 2006

The accounts are in agreement with those accounting records as required by the accounting standards of company Act 2006.

The accounts are in agreement with the provisions applicable to companies subject to the small companies regime.

We have not been instructed to carry out an audit or a review of the financial statements of Universal Ease To Redress. For this reason, we have not verified the accuracy or completeness of the accounting records of information and explanations that were given to us and we do not, therefore, express any opinion on the statutory financial statements.

Trustees' report and financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2023

The trustees of Universal Ease to Redress present their report and financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2023 which have been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice, "Accounting and Reporting by Charities issued in January 2015 (The FRSSE)

Structure, governance and management

The charity is organised so that the trustees meet regularly to manage its affairs. The day to day administration of the charity is managed by the trustees' chair.

Governing document

Universal Ease to Redress is a charitable organisation and registered on the 20th March 2009. The charity is governed by a constitution adopted 9 June 2008 as amended by special resolution 8 March 2009 as amended on 27 Oct 2018.

Our aims and objectives.

Purpose and aims

The objects of the charity are:

The charity is to promote human rights (as out in the universal declaration of human rights and subsequent United Nations Conventions and Declarations), in particular the prevention of torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, throughout the world by all or any of the following means;

1. Monitoring abuses of human rights
11. Obtaining redress for the victims of human rights abuse
111. Relieving need among the victims of human rights abuse
- IV. Educating the public about human rights
- V. Eliminating infringements of human rights

Ensuring our work delivers our aims

We review our aims, objectives and activities each year. This review looks at what we achieved and the outcomes of our work in the previous 12 months. The review looks at the success of each key activity and the benefits they have brought to those groups of people we are set up to help. The review also helps us to ensure our aim, objectives and activities remained focused on our stated purposes.

How our activities deliver public benefit

Our main activities and who we try to help are described below. All our charitable activities focus on promoting human rights.

- a. Prevention of torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment by monitoring abuses of human rights
- b. Reaching out to those that are victims of human rights abuse and obtaining redress
- c. Educating the public human rights and eliminating infringements of human rights.

UNIVERSAL EASE TO REDRESS

Trustees' report and financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2023

Financial review

During the year, income of £31,581.00 (Thirty One Thousand Five Hundred and Eighty One Pounds) was received as voluntary donations. The net income for the period as shown in the financial statements for the period was a surplus £538 (Five Hundred and Thirty Eight Pounds Only).

Responsibilities of the trustees

Charity law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable trust as at the balance sheet and of its incoming resources and applications of resources, including income and expenditure, for the financial year.

In preparing those financial statements the trustees should follow best practice and;

- * Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- * Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- * Prepare the financial statements on the ongoing basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue on that basis.

The trustees are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enables them to ensure that the financial statements comply with Companies Act 2006. The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Members of the board of trustees

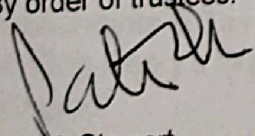

Members of the board of trustees, and trustees for the purpose of charity law, who served during the year and up to the date report are set out on page 1.

In accordance with charity law, as trustees, we certify that;

So far as we are aware, there is no relevant information of which the charity's accountants are unaware and as the trustees of the charity we have taken all steps that we ought to have taken in order to make ourselves aware of any relevant information and to establish that the charity's accountants are aware of that information.

The report has been prepared,

By order of trustees:

Patrick Stewart
Trustee/Chair

UNIVERSAL EASE TO REDRESS

Independent examiners' report to the members of Universal Ease to Redress

We examined the accounts and the financial statements on pages 5 to 8 which have been prepared under historical cost accounting convention and in accordance with the applicable accounting standard Board.

Respective responsibilities of directors and accountants.

As described on page 3, the company directors are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. It is our responsibility to examine the accounts and based on our examination, to report our opinion to the shareholders. Our examination was not an audit as the company directors believe that the company is exempt from an audit.

Basis of opinion.

We conducted our examination in accordance with the appropriate standards for reporting accountants issued by the Auditing Practices Board. The examination consisted of comparing the accounting records kept by the company and making appropriate inquiries of the directors of the company, as we considered necessary for the purpose of this report.

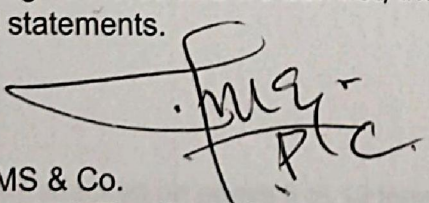

Opinion

The charity satisfied the conditions for exemption from an audit of accounts for the year according to section 477 of the company Act 2006

The accounts are in agreement with those accounting records as required by the accounting standards of company Act 2006.

The accounts are in agreement with the provisions applicable to companies subject to the small companies regime.

We have not been instructed to carry out an audit or a review of the financial statements of Universal Ease To Redress. For this reason, we have not verified the accuracy or completeness of the accounting records of information and explanations that were given to us and we do not, therefore, express any opinion on the statutory financial statements.

Trustees' report and financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2022

The trustees of Universal Ease to Redress present their report and financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2022 which have been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice, "Accounting and Reporting by Charities issued in January 2015 (The FRSSE)

Structure, governance and management

The charity is organised so that the trustees meet regularly to manage its affairs. The day to day administration of the charity is managed by the trustees' chair.

Governing document

Universal Ease to Redress is a charitable organisation and registered on the 20th March 2009. The charity is governed by a constitution adopted 9 June 2008 as amended by special resolution 8 March 2009 as amended on 27 Oct 2018.

Our aims and objectives.

Purpose and aims

The objects of the charity are:

The charity is to promote human rights (as out in the universal declaration of human rights and subsequent United Nations Conventions and Declarations), in particular the prevention of torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, throughout the world by all or any of the following means;

1. Monitoring abuses of human rights
11. Obtaining redress for the victims of human rights abuse
111. Relieving need among the victims of human rights abuse
- IV. Educating the public about human rights
- V. Eliminating infringements of human rights

Ensuring our work delivers our aims

We review our aims, objectives and activities each year. This review looks at what we achieved and the outcomes of our work in the previous 12 months. The review looks at the success of each key activity and the benefits they have brought to those groups of people we are set up to help. The review also helps us to ensure our aim, objectives and activities remained focused on our stated purposes.

How our activities deliver public benefit

Our main activities and who we try to help are described below. All our charitable activities focus on promoting human rights.

- a. Prevention of torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment by monitoring abuses of human rights
- b. Reaching out to those that are victims of human rights abuse and obtaining redress
- c. Educating the public human rights and eliminating infringements of human rights.

Trustees' report and financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2022 (continued).

Financial review

During the year, income of £36,386.00 (thirty six thousand, three hundred and eighty six pounds) was received as voluntary donations. The net income for the period as shown in the financial statements for the period was a deficit of £2,953. (two thousand nine hundred and fifty three pounds). This was covered by the surplus of the earlier years

Responsibilities of the trustees

Charity law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable trust as at the balance sheet and of its incoming resources and applications of resources, including income and expenditure, for the financial year.

In preparing those financial statements the trustees should follow best practice and;

- * Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- * Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- * Prepare the financial statements on the ongoing basis unless it is appropriate to presume that the charity will continue on that basis.

The trustees are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enables them to ensure that the financial statements comply with Companies Act 2006. The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Members of the board of trustees

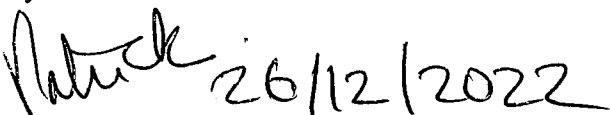

Members of the board of trustees, and trustees for the purpose of charity law, who served during the year and up to the date report are set out on page 1.

In accordance with charity law, as trustees, we certify that;

So far as we are aware, there is no relevant information of which the charity's accountants are unaware and as the trustees of the charity we have taken all steps that we ought to have taken in order to make ourselves aware of any relevant information and to establish that the charity's accountants are aware of that information.

The report has been prepared,

By order of trustees:

Patrick Stewart
Trustee/Chair

UNIVERSAL EASE TO REDRESS

Independent examiners' report to the members of Universal Ease to Redress

We examined the accounts and the financial statements on pages 5 to 10 which have been prepared under historical cost accounting convention and in accordance with the applicable accounting standard Board.

Respective responsibilities of directors and accountants.

As described on page 3, the company directors are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. It is our responsibility to examine the accounts and based on our examination, to report our opinion to the shareholders.

Our examination was not an audit as the company directors believe that the company is exempt from an audit.

Basis of opinion.

We conducted our examination in accordance with the appropriate standards for reporting accountants issued by the Auditing Practices Board. The examination consisted of comparing the accounting records kept by the company and making appropriate inquiries of the directors of the company, as we considered necessary for the purpose of this report.

Opinion

The charity satisfied the conditions for exemption from an audit of accounts for the year according to section 477 of the company Act 2006

The accounts are in agreement with those accounting records as required by the accounting standards of company Act 2006.

The accounts are in agreement with the provisions applicable to companies subject to the small companies regime.

We have not been instructed to carry out an audit or a review of the financial statements of Universal Ease To Redress. For this reason, we have not verified the accuracy or completeness of the accounting records of information and explanations that were given to us and we do not, therefore, express any opinion on the statutory financial statements.

UNIVERSAL EASE TO REDRESS

Trustees' report and financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2021

The trustees of Universal Ease to Redress present their report and financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2021 which have been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice, "Accounting and Reporting by Charities issued in January 2015 (The FRSSSE)

Structure, governance and management

The charity is organised so that the trustees meet regularly to manage its affairs. The day to day administration of the charity is managed by the trustees' chair.

Governing document

Universal Ease to Redress is a charitable organisation and registered on the 20th March 2009. The charity is governed by a constitution adopted 9 June 2008 as amended by special resolution 8 March 2009 as amended on 27 Oct 2018.

Our aims and objectives.

Purpose and aims

The objects of the charity are:

The charity is to promote human rights (as out in the universal declaration of human rights and subsequent United Nations Conventions and Declarations), in particular the prevention of torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, throughout the world by all or any of the following means;

1. Monitoring abuses of human rights

11. Obtaining redress for the victims of human rights abuse

111. Relieving need among the victims of human rights abuse

IV. Educating the public about human rights

V. Eliminating infringements of human rights

Ensuring our work delivers our aims

We review our aims, objectives and activities each year. This review looks at what we achieved and the outcomes of our work in the previous 12 months. The review looks at the success of each key activity and the benefits they have brought to those groups of people we are set up to help. The review also helps us to ensure our aim, objectives and activities remained focused on our stated purposes.

How our activities deliver public benefit

Our main activities and who we try to help are described below. All our charitable activities focus on promoting human rights.

a. Prevention of torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment by monitoring abuses of human rights

UNIVERSAL EASE TO REDRESS

Trustees' report and financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2021

Financial review

During the year, income of £32,110 was received as voluntary donations. The net income for the period as shown in the financial statements for the period was a surplus £3,175.

Responsibilities of the trustees

Charity law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable trust as at the balance sheet and of its income and of its incoming resources and applications of resources, including income and expenditure, for the financial year.

In preparing those financial statements the trustees should follow best practice and:

* Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;

* Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent

* Prepare the financial statements on the ongoing basis unless it is in appropriate to presume that the charity will continue on that basis.

The trustees are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enables them to ensure that the financial statements comply with Companies Act 2006. The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Members of the board of trustees

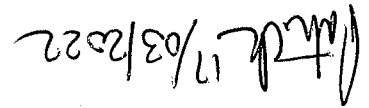

Members of the board of trustees, and trustees for the purpose of charity law, who served during the year and up to the date report are set out on page 1.

In accordance with charity law, as trustees, we certify that:

So far as we are aware, there is no relevant information of which the charity's accountants are unaware and as the trustees of the charity we have taken all steps that we ought to have taken in order to make ourselves aware of any relevant information and to establish that the charity's accountants are aware of that information.

The report has been prepared,

By order of trustees:

Patrick Stewart

Trustee/Chair

UNIVERSAL EASE TO REDRESS

Independent examiners' report to the members of Universal Ease to Redress

We examined the accounts and the financial statements on pages 5 to 8 which have been prepared under historical cost accounting convention and in accordance with the applicable accounting standard Board.

Respective responsibilities of directors and accountants.

As described on page 3, the company directors are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. It is our responsibility to examine the accounts and based on our examination, to report our opinion to the shareholders. Our examination was not an audit as the company directors believe that the company is exempt from an audit.

Basis of opinion.

We conducted our examination in accordance with the appropriate standards for reporting accountants issued by the Auditing Practices Board. The examination consisted of comparing the accounting records kept by the company and making appropriate inquiries of the directors of the company, as we considered necessary for the purpose of this report.

The charity satisfied the conditions for exemption from an audit of accounts for the year according to section 477 of the company Act 2006. The accounts are in agreement with those accounting records as required by the accounting standards of company Act 2006. The accounts are in agreement with the provisions applicable to companies subject to the small companies regime.

We have not been instructed to carry out an audit or a review of the financial statements of Universal Ease To Redress. For this reason, we have not verified the accuracy or completeness of the accounting records of information and explanations that were given to us and we do not, therefore, express any opinion on the statutory financial statements.
