Report of the Trustees For the year ended 31 March 2022

The trustees have the pleasure of submitting their report and the financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2022

Objectives of the Charity, Principal Activities and Organisation of Our Work

The Objects of the International Christian Celebration Centre (ICCC) are:

Promoting and advancing of the Christianity in our community and within the public at large. To advance Christianity for the benefit of the public through musical video studio, TV Production, Film production, Choir rehearsals, meeting place, lectures, producing and distributing Christian literature on Christian faith. Enlighten our community and the general public through evangelising the Christian religion.

Developments, Activities and Achievements in the Year

We have been providing counselling services to members of the community and provided training to equip more volunteers with the relevant skills that will help them serve the community better.

We continue to support and encourage young people by providing interactive sessions, talk shows, awards and concerts.

.We have organised workshops and seminars on financial excellence to deal with the challenges arising from this economic recession emphasising the principles of the Word of God relating to it.

We have been able to plan and organise our operations successful in motivating and helping people develop biblical principles that build up their self esteem enabling them to fulfil their purpose, goals aspiration and enjoy a fulfilled, stress prevention joyful life

Future Developments

The Charity strategy is part of fulfilling our main objectives, to create more organised events that have impact in and outside our community, London, United Kingdom and global reach to equip youths positively thus reducing crimes and other anti-social behaviours.

We will continue to send financial support to other charities and organizations involved in giving relief to widows, orphanages and organisation who strongly support furthering the Christian faith.

Review of Financial Position

Please refer to the annexed accounts for the details of the Financial Statements for the year ended 31 March 2022

Trustees' Responsibilities in Relation to the Financial Statements

The Charities Act requires the Trustees to prepare Statements for the financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the surplus or deficit of the charity for that period. In preparing these statements, the trustees are requested to:

- a) Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- b) Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- c) State whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- d) Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking any reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
