The objects of the Charity are to –

- To provide a place for Muslims to perform their regular prayers.
- To promote and enlist in co-operation in Islamic Education and Culture and to advance the knowledge and understanding of Islam.
- To organise Islamic conferences, religious meetings, functions, seminars, sessions for interpretation and translation of Quran and Islamic festivals.
- To arrange Islamic Education classes for the children or alternatively to establish and maintain an Islamic religious school.
- Continue to raise awareness about the problems of family breakdown being and the impact this can have on the emotional and psychological well-being of the young children in the family.
- Engaging youth in sport activities

Audit

The Charity had taken advantage of the exemption from the requirement to have its accounts audited.

Organisation

A Board of Trustees of members, who meet monthly, administers the Charity for day-to-day affairs.

Investment powers

Under the constitution lies on charity document, the Charity has the power to make any investment that the Trustees see fit.

Continued ...

Reserve policy and risk management

The Charity has in place, specific commitments from its members to continue their financial support, to enable the Charity to fund its monthly repayments to the Bank, the Trustees are confident that the support of members will continue into the foreseeable future.

Trustees responsibilities in the relation to the financial statements

Charity Law requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Charity, at the end of the financial year and of its surplus or deficit for the financial year. In doing so the trustees are required to –

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Charity will continue in business.

The Trustees are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Charity and enables them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charity Act 2011. The Trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

These accounts have been prepared in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard to Smaller Entities and SORP 2015

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 07/03/2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
