The Trustees present the annual report together with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 30 June 2024.

Structure, governance and management

Nature of governing document

6:19 Trust is a registered charity, number 1132099, and is constituted under a Trust deed.

Recruitment and appointment of Trustees

The management of the Charity is the responsibility of the Trustees who are elected and co-opted under the terms of the Trust deed.

Organisational structure

The day to day running of the charity is conducted by Rev. Simon Allaby who is engaged in all primary activities of the charity and its ministry.

Risk management

The trustees have assessed the major risks to which the Charity is exposed, in particular those related to the operations and finances of the Charity, and are satisfied that systems and procedures are in place to mitigate exposure to the major risks.

Objectives and activities

Objects and aims

The object of the charity is to advance the Christian faith in such ways and in such parts of the UK or the world as the Trustees from time to time may think fit.

Public benefit

The Trustees confirm that they have complied with the requirements of section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission for England and Wales.

Review of Activities

The 6:19 Trust supports the work of Simon Allaby as an evangelist. His time is split between work based at Bolney Village Chapel and writing and itinerant preaching and teaching. This latter work is focussed on Turn the Page which became the operating name of the Trust in 2017.

Bolney Village Chapel: Work at the Chapel continued with many encouragements. We held our second church weekend 'at home' at the end of September 2023 with Amy Summerfield as guest speaker. Two Breakout Groups for people exploring faith continued to meet regularly. In June 2023 BVC converted to a CIO. BVC contribute £12,000pa into the Trust as well as providing accommodation for Simon and his family free of rent, Council Tax and water rates.

Turn the Page: Simon Allaby continued to record and publish Turn The Page stories each week. His book of stories for Remembrance Sunday "Greater Love" was rewritten to make it suitable for Ukraine and published in Kyiv in both English and Ukrainian versions. A book of stories for prisons in collaboration with the Daylight Christian Prison Trust "The Word on the Street" was printed and distributed into prisons during the summer. A new project to write a book for the homeless in collaboration with the charity Off the Fence was begun.

In March 2024 Simon made his 6th visit to Pakistan working with partners to support and encourage the church in Lahore.

In May 2024 Simon visited Sierra Leone with two others from the Countess of Huntingdon's Connexion to visit and support churches and schools sponsored by the Sierra Leone Mission.

At the beginning of the year our monthly income fell by almost 1/3 due to a reduction in giving by our biggest donor. This would have led to a severe financial shortfall which could only have been made up by a significant reduction to Simon's salary. But in the autumn we received a legacy of £5,000 and at the beginning of 2024 a grant from the Childs Christian Trust of £6,000. We thank God for his continued faithfulness and provision.

The following is a summary of the Director's other activities during the year:

- UCB Radio Simon continued to record sixty second 'Godspots' for broadcast on UCB Christian Radio. In the summer he was interviewed on air about his book for men Under the Bonnet.

- Countess of Huntingdon's Connexion Simon continued as a trustee for the Countess of Huntingdon's Connexion with a particular brief for mission and evangelism. He also serves on the annual conference planning group. TTP stories are published each week on the CHC website under the title 'Short Thought'.
- Christian Publicity and Outreach Simon continued as a Trustee.
- Filling Station Simon continued on the planning group for the Filling Station (<https://thefillingstation.org/station/mid-sussex/>) which now meets in Bolney at the Village Hall.
- Conferences Simon attended the Philo Trust Associate's retreat in September 2023, the Countess of Huntingdon's Connexion conference in October 2023 and the Evangelists Conference in January 2024.

Summary

Opportunities for ministry both with BVC and TTP have continued to expand, particularly with the book ministry and collaborations with Daylight Christian Prison Trust, Off the Fence and the Naval and Military Bible Society. We were hugely encouraged by God's continuing financial provision.

Future Developments

Our focus in 2024/25 will be continuing to work on books with other partners. We also plan to exhibit the work of Turn the Page at the Christian conference Bible by the Beach.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 30/06/2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
