Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The main purpose and aim of the charity is to advance the Christian faith. To create a community where individuals can feel safe, through prayer, worship and solid teachings of the word of God we aim to draw individuals closer to God. This is being spearheaded by our lead Reverend Ernest Boadu.

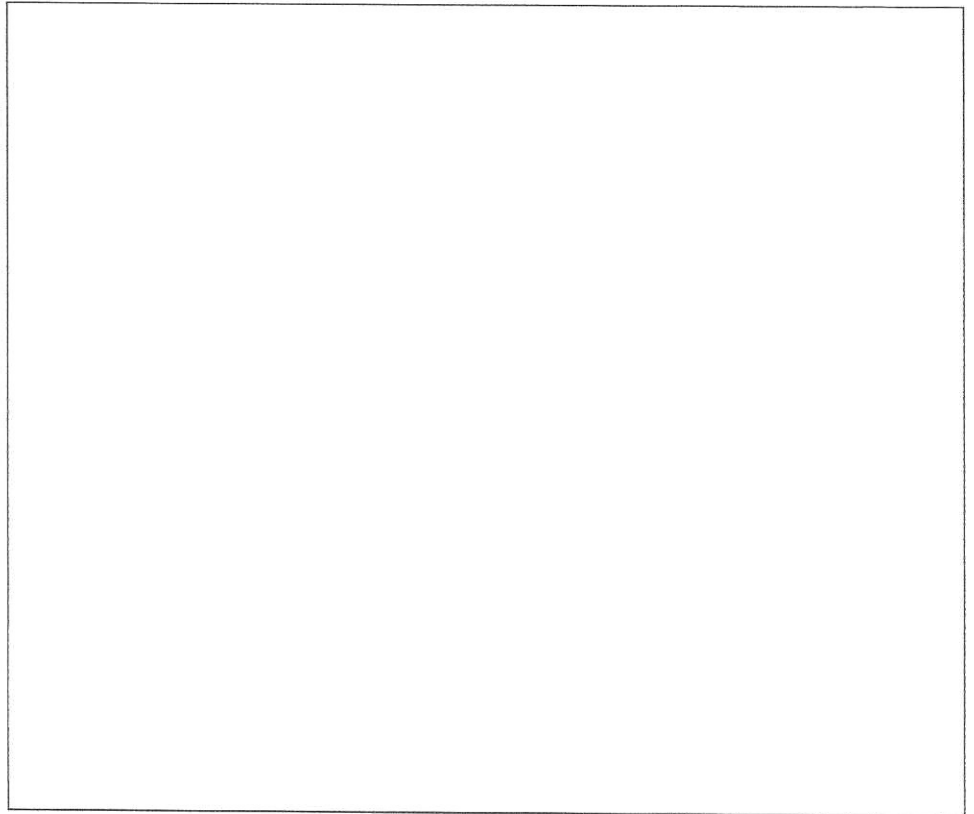

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

With the sole aim of advancing the Christian faith, we have weekly church services where members of the congregation are encouraged with the word of God. We also run midweek services and monthly departmental meetings. We haven't had much of a change in this structure from the previous year as we believe this helped bring stability to our member base. Unfortunately, we had to stop our radio evangelism as upon review, we were not reaching the target audience we anticipated. Although a family was gained, there wasn't much progression and interaction from listeners and we made the difficult to invest our funds into other means of evangelism. We invested heavily on our audio visuals and background to enable our live streaming. This has been a great avenue we believe the word of God is being shared and we are able to reach masses through this. People are able to experience our services with us and more importantly, our aim of advancing the Christian faith is being met.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;

An objective of our was to increase our online presence which we have done by the investment in our streaming equipment and visuals.

We organised a few street evangelism and homeless feeding which proved successful and creating awareness of who we are.

We hosted a married seminar which was also very successful and now will be added unto our annual events.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

A major achievement for the church this year was us being able to acquire a 7 year lease on a property we can call home. Having our own premises and place of worship means that we no longer have a restriction in our meeting times. Being at the sports hall posed a major drawback as often times we had to reschedule our plans to accommodate theirs.

Having our own premises also means that we can successfully grow as intended through outreach programs and youth activities. The year before and this year has been a tough year for the church with covid hitting and us having to move services online; but it also proved to be a blessing in disguise as we were able to save for the move. The congregation has also been very instrumental in achieving this as key members generously donated to this cause.

As well as the lease, we undertook extensive building works to make it fit for purpose.

This was a new chapter for the church but we saw the unity in love amongst us during this process which was heartwarming to see and be a part of.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The main purpose and aim of the charity is to advance the Christian faith. Also to create a community where individuals can feel safe. Through prayer, worship and the bible we aim to draw individuals closer to God. We also aim to further advance the Gospel through missionary and outreach work which Reverend Ernest Boadu has continue his predecessor.

With the sole aim of advancing the Christian faith, we have weekly church services where members of the congregation are encouraged with the word of God. We came out of lockdown and back to physical church. Having been forced to conduct services online, we are now utilising this avenue for bible studies and other meetings to keep our church community in touch over days where we don't meet physically.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

A major objective for the church this year is to have our own premises and place of worship. We have begun a building fund which has been successful and has now put us in a place where the church can begin to actively search for a premises. A committee has been set up to push this objective forward as we believe having our own space can allow us further our outreach as intended.

We have also invested in our youth by offering keyboard lessons. This has proven successful and thoroughly enjoyed by our youth.

We also held 2 amazing and life transforming events – The Conquerors Summit and Touch the Hem. These events were successful and touched the lives of many. We also had guest ministers from around the world participate.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The main purpose and aim of the charity is to advance the Christian faith. Also to create a community where individuals can feel safe.
Through prayer, worship and the bible we aim to draw individuals closer to God.
We also aim to further advance the Gospel through missionary and outreach work which has been spear headed by our General Overseer Reverend Patrick Oware. Reverend Ernest Boadu has also taken over as being the senior leader of the church.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

With the sole aim of advancing the Christian faith, we have weekly church services where members of the congregation are encouraged with the word of God. This was a turbulent year for the world as a whole and as well the church. Church was moved online and as such it was difficult to keep the enthusiasm and regular interaction from members. It was therefore vital that our online presence had to adapt to the changing environment. We decided to continue with our services on zoom and keep our social media platforms active by posting quotes and scriptures from our services.

Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

We have been able to maintain our members even though we could not physically meet. As tough as the year has been, we engaged the church by organising virtual praises and worship sessions, bible training courses and even virtual games and movie nights.

A main concern of the church was making sure that our youths and elderly were comfortable. Therefore regular telephone catchups and ensuring the correct training was given to enable every member participate in our virtual activities.

The church also wanted to alleviate the burden and strain of those who had lost their jobs or furloughed by providing all its members with a few provisions such as rice and oil to make sure all were still able to eat well.

Ofcourse we were on hand to provide any further financial support required from those who were struggling financially.

This initiative was well received by all and provided a moral boast as we were effectively still practising what we preach even in a time of chaos.
