Years 2023/24 Report

West African Development (WAD) aim to improve the quality of life of African's and other ethnic minority people living in Tameside and elsewhere. Due to a financial crisis, this has had huge impact on our community and the services and the activities we provide for our service users. WAD and teams work are working hard to eliminate a few challenges in our community over the last 12 months which has included social isolation, digital exclusion and the mental health, unemployment and the lack of education and training opportunities.

For minority groups, it is important that we ensure that our people living with a basic and essential for living and in suitable accommodation, it is constantly battling marginalisation and proving that their lives are worthy too, in housing, health, education, and criminal justice and so on. It is important, now more than ever, to consciously break down barriers to equality in the context of employment and beyond.

The following activities are what we delivered over the last 12 months to tackle on some of these issues and barriers.

1. Provided support and access to digital and resources for those who are digitally disconnected and living with financial hardship.
2. Achievement and opening of the Tameside first African Arts and Heritage Centre to educate and bring African ethnic minority together and the creation of dialogue platform for the African, but not exclusively.
3. Provided signposting and basic support to refugee and asylum seekers living in Tameside on where to connect for support and access to the services that are available for them.
4. Provided support to local communities on how to remain safe and awareness on Crimes.
5. Provide a Pre ESOL and British values class, language translation basic advice, support to communities and first arrival to the environment.
6. Supported on health improvement information and support to BAME communities living in housing provided by local authority.
7. Consultation with the community to identify and understand housing needs.

8. Prevention of Race Hate Crimes and domestic abuse - Many BAME people lives are affected by undermining their self-confidence and willingness to access services or become involved. WAD is providing support improving self-confidence via workshop and community related projects.
9. Provide sport activity to keep our fellows fit and to socialise by engaging with our football team and weekly training sessions. We are very proud of the winning 2024 Hyde and District Sunday Football League.
10. Rolling out and supporting communities through winter pressures and support to most vulnerable during this season. During the cold winter months West African Development have worked with our vulnerable community to ensure they stayed warm and had the necessities to get through these difficult times. A lot of the communities we serve and supported had either lost job some were made redundant which impacted on their financial situations. Many of them were experiencing poverty and financial hardship. Many of them were reliant of food banks and other support agencies where English was a second language this was a problem for many of people we support.

WAD actions for the short term:

1. Continue to provide one to one support sessions for families and individual who need support in Tameside to continue to thrive socially and economically.
2. Developing our Pre ESOL session to ensure we can accommodate more beneficent and develop a sense of belonging and community inclusion.
3. Developing of our Heritage Centre with African Root project to educate and inform communities to build social cohesion and foster better relationships in the local area. We hope to attract all communities from across the borough for the benefit of the public, bringing together communities from across Tameside and neighbouring areas to learn more about African customs and traditions we hope to address inequalities affecting African communities and develop better dialogue, collaboration and partnerships working with various sectors and communities across the area and elsewhere.
4. Development of relationship with key service providers in Tameside and to improve and create staff and volunteering opportunities.
5. Developing a youth club to encourage teamwork building.
