Policy on grant making	Para 1.38	Any group, organisation or individual who wishes to apply for funding from the Trust needs to complete an application form and have their project endorsed by a serving police officer or a South Wales police staff member. Applications are assessed on a rolling basis and the Trust aims to respond to applicants within four-six weeks. All Applications are made via the online funding portal 'flexi grant': https://policeandcrimecommissionerforsouthwales.flexigrant.com/ Once an application is submitted it is assessed using the following process: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The application is initially checked by the Commissioner's staff for due diligence and financial scrutiny. Applicants may be contacted for additional information to support this screening. The applications are then discussed with Force colleagues before being presented to the Trustees.2. If the application is deemed eligible for consideration by the Trustees, it is then reviewed by the grants sub-group at the next appropriate meeting or by email exchange if there is an immediate consensus view.3. Applications are assessed against our Outcomes Framework. The grants sub-group assesses to what extent the application helps young people make more positive life choices, have better relationships and experience improved mental and physical wellbeing.4. Once the final decision has been made, the applicant is notified via the online portal.5. Successful applicants will be sent a letter setting out the terms and conditions of funding and asked to sign and return a Grant Acceptance form.6. All grant recipients need to submit a report at the end of their project, providing details on the activity undertaken, the outcomes that were achieved and how the grant was spent.

(Remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/03/2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
