Trustees responsibilities

The charity trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993) and that an independent examination is needed to examine the Accounts (under section 43(3)(a) of the 1993 Act), to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners (under section 43(7)(b) in the 1993 Act); and to state whether particular matters have come to their attention.

Volunteers

Many volunteers give up their time to help in the centre's various programmes and projects. Without their help, commitment and dedication we would not have achieved what we have. We would also like to thank our executive, members and the community for their support, advice, guidance, generous donations and constructive criticism. We are grateful to Allah for His blessings and pray He accepts our work in bringing the communities together for the common good of humanity.

Chair Rotation

The trustees have agreed the role of Chair will alternate between Dr M Ashi and A M A Najmi every two years.
