Following the Government Lockdown guidelines, the centre was closed to the public from the 23 March 2020.

We provided support via internet and the telephone where necessary, especially during bereavements.

Online Educational Classes is an area we will encourage with a view to invest in new IT equipment and resources after the lockdown ends.

There were donations to the charity via the internet GoFundMe platform and this kept us functioning with the one paid staff member.

All our monthly and yearly functions were cancelled.

We want to make the centre more Beneficial again, every day to the surrounding community after this LOCKDOWN ends.
