Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The centre is fully open and working to achieve all its objectives and commitments. We have increased our opening hours to bring in more people and provide refreshments when possible.

We have provided support where necessary, especially during bereavements awakenings. The centre had an exceptional busy Year with more congregations and attendance.

Weddings are also supported by the centre in providing religious advice and obligations.

Divorce, separation, reconciliation advise given when deemed necessary

Online Educational Classes and investment in new IT equipment is still awaiting approval by all trustees. The yearly funding has decreased. This has been due to the cost-of-living crisis. We are doing more fund-raising activities to counteract the fall in income.

The IT setup seems further away as our funding and budgeting is still not in place and all the trustees are not in agreement for this expansion.

All our monthly and yearly functions are continuing.

Our bereavement & funeral facility is helping the community In their time of greatest needs. Most weekends the centre is open for longer periods to accommodate bereaved families.

The centre is looking forward to expanding the ladies area as the demand has increased. Lack of funding and commitment from all trustees has not helped to progress this further this year 24/25.

Our one unused premises(133 Bacchus Road) will be renovated and sublet as soon as possible to generate more income for charitable use.
