STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Corporate Governance.

The Trust is managed by the Directors shown above, who meet on a regular basis in accordance with the Board's procedures. Minutes are taken of all formal meetings.

Governing Document

The Trust is controlled by its Memorandum and Articles of Association.

The Trust is a limited company, limited by guarantee, as defined by the Companies Act 2006.

The Trust was incorporated on 1 December 2009.

Each Member has undertaken to contribute a sum not exceeding £1 in the event of the winding up of the Trust. There are 6 Members. (2023:6)

Recruitment and Appointment of New Trustees / Directors of the Company

A Trustee is a Director of the Company, who shall be a Director of the Company for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006 and a Charity Trustee for the purposes of the Charities Acts.

JOSHUA HAYDAY HELPING HAND TRUST

Company Number: 7091862

Charity Number: 1134104

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT CONTINUED

The Members may, by ordinary resolution, appoint any individual aged 16 years or over, who is not disqualified as defined in the Articles of Association, to be a Trustee, provided the appointment does not cause the number of Trustees to exceed any maximum for the time being. As at 31 December 2024, there was no such maximum number.

Induction and Training of New Trustees

New Trustees are briefed on their legal obligations under Charity and Company law, the content of the Trust's Memorandum and Articles of Association, the Board's procedures and decision-making processes, the Trust's strategic objectives and the recent and proposed financial performance of the Trust.

Risk Management

The Directors have a duty to identify and review the risks to which the Joshua Hayday Helping Hand Trust is exposed and to ensure that appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud and error.

The Board is responsible for the management of risks faced by the Trust. Risks are identified, assessed and controls established throughout the year. A key control is the formal review of the Trust's Risk Register on an annual basis.

Through the risk management process established by the Joshua Hayday Helping Hand Trust, the Directors are satisfied that the major risks identified have been adequately mitigated where necessary. It is recognised that systems can only provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that major risks have been adequately managed. The Trustees have determined that the key risk to the Charity would be the inability to raise funds.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and Aims

The principal objective of the Joshua Hayday Helping Hand Trust (hereinafter "Trust" where appropriate) is to provide relief and support to parents, guardians and carers of children with life-limiting or life threatening medical conditions. The Trust also provides finance for organisations, such as children's hospices that provide specific support, by way of designated projects, and to families or individuals whose children have life-limiting health issues.

The fundamental aim of the Trust is to assist individuals caring for children in very poor health and to fund projects that provide practical or financial support to families, such as respite care, assistance with transport needs and the funding of medical, mobility or play equipment. The Trust also helps to fund the cost of food and groceries, normally by way of providing vouchers.

Significant Activities in 2024

Fund Raising

The Trust's own annual Golf Tournament at Worplesdon Golf Club along with sponsored participation in the Brighton Marathon and the London South Tough Mudder event represented the major fund raising events in 2024.

As in the past, welcome charitable donations were also received from corporate sources, friends, family and work colleagues throughout the year.

Support Provided

During 2024, JHHHT continued to support individual families and their children by providing funds for, inter alia, food vouchers, medical and domestic equipment, travel costs, days out and short holidays.

Such assistance is normally made possible by referrals from a number of Children's hospices including Shooting Star, Demelza House, Chestnut Tree House and Haven House, as well as Kaleidoscope.

The Trust also continued to provide significant funds for transportation.

A taxi account facility for families using the NHS Kaleidoscope Children's Palliative Care Service (Kensington and Chelsea, Hammersmith and Fulham and Westminster) represents a typical example of this type of support. The Trust's long established arrangement with Kaleidoscope allows families in their care to attend hospital and medical appointments and other activities.

The Trust also provides specific transport funds at Shooting Star and Haven House.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Free Reserves Policy

The Trustees annually review the free reserves for the Joshua Hayday Helping Hand Trust. Each review encompasses the nature of the income and expenditure streams and the extent of the Trust's reserves. The latest review concluded that to allow the Charity to be managed efficiently and prudently, and to provide a buffer for uninterrupted provision of finance to children and families who qualify for the Trust's assistance, a general reserve equivalent to a minimum of £5,000 or 25% of the Charity's incoming funds should be maintained.

It is the Trustees' intention to distribute the balance to children or families who qualify for assistance or to organisations that provide care. The current level of free reserves at the end of the Charity's financial year was £151,517. The Trustees are, therefore, satisfied that uninterrupted financial assistance can continue to be offered to children and families who qualify for the Trust's assistance during the next financial year.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES ON THE UNAUDITED ACCOUNTS

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Joshua Hayday Helping Hand Trust: 31 December 2024

I report on the Accounts of the Company for the period ended 31 December 2024, which are set out on Page 5 to Page 9 below.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The Charity's Trustees (who are also the Directors of the Company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The Charity's Trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year, under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) but that an independent examination is required.

Having satisfied myself that the Charity is not subject to an audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you, as Trustees, concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 and 387 of the Companies Act 2006; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of section 394 and 395 of the Companies Act and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities

have not been met: or

- to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

CONTINUED

AS AT 31 DECEMBER 2024

The Charitable Company was entitled to exemption from audit under Section 477 of the Companies Act 2006 for the year ended 31 December 2024.

The Members have not required the Charitable Company to obtain an audit of its financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2024 in accordance with Section 476 of the Companies Act 2006.

The Directors acknowledge their responsibilities for:

(a) ensuring that the charitable company keeps accounting records that comply with Sections 386 and 387 of the Companies Act 2006; and

(b) preparing financial statements which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Charitable Company as at the end of each financial year and of its surplus or deficit for each financial year in accordance with the requirements of Sections 394 and 395 and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 relating to financial statements, so far as applicable to the charitable company.

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small Charitable Companies and with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective January 2015).

NOTES FOR THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 DECEMBER 2024

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Accounting convention

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities, the Companies Act 2006 and the requirements of the Statement of Recommended Practice, Accounting and Reporting by Charities.

Incoming Resources

All incoming resources are included on the Statement of Financial Activities when the Charity is legally entitled to the income and the amount can be quantified with reasonable accuracy.

Resources Expended

Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Taxation

The Charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the Trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the Charity.

Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular purposes.
