Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document

(trust deed, constitution)

The charity was established by a charitable trust deed on 26 November 2009 and was entered into the register of Charities with effect from 18 February 2010 and is unincorporated.

How the charity is constituted

(eg. trust, association, company)

Charitable Trust

Trustee selection methods

(eg. appointed by, elected by)

There must be at least three trustees. The first trustees are entitled to hold office for life, subject to clause 4.7 of the governing trust deed. Additional trustees must be appointed by a resolution of the trustees passed at a meeting called under clause 5 of the governing trust deed.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

There is currently no formal induction or training programme, however, the trustees are aware of their responsibilities and being the founders of the charity are fully informed of its charitable aims and objectives.

All of the administration of the charity is undertaken by the trustees.

The trustees have assessed the risks to which the charity is exposed (which are considered minimal) and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate exposure to such risks.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The charity's objectives are to encourage charitable giving from the extended family and to apply the funds to the making of grants, including, but not limited to Jewish individuals and institutions, for the following charitable objectives:

- The advancement of education
- To preserve and protect health
- Religious Activities
- Such other charitable objectives in such a manner as the trustees shall from time to time decide

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The trustees confirm that they have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commissions general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the charity's aims and objectives and in implementing the grant making policy for the period.

The charity has implemented its grant making policy to make grants for such charitable purposes as the trustees think fit. In this way the aims of the charity are carried out for the public benefit.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The trustees make such investigations as appropriate to ensure all grants are in accordance with the objectives to further the various causes supported by the charity, and to this end the charity has been active during the period.

During the period grants made were allocated as follows:

The advancement of education – 26% (PY 28%)
To preserve and protect health 13% (PY 18%)
Religious Activity – 48% (PY 37%)
For Community Development – 13% (PY 17%)

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

It is the policy of the charity that unrestricted funds which have not been designated for a specific use should be maintained at a level equivalent to between six and twelve months average expenditure. The trustees consider that reserves at this level will ensure that, in the event of a significant drop in funding, they will be able to continue the charity's activities while consideration is given to ways in which additional funds may be raised. This level of reserves has more than been maintained throughout the period.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

None.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Grants to institutions and individuals amounted to £27,207 during the period. Gifts and donations to the charity (including any gift aid recovered) and interest on funds in the period amounted to £125,087. The charity is in a strong financial position at the period end to make future charitable grants.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Acthave not been met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
