Governance and Objectives of Coton Village Hall

Coton Village Hall is a registered company limited by guarantee. The Articles and Memorandum of Association are the governing documents which control the way that the Coton Village Hall is run. Coton Village Hall was incorporated in May 2009 but did not start trading until the end of May 2010.

The objects of Coton Village Hall are contained in the Memorandum of Association. They are to provide and maintain a village hall for the use of the residents of the area without distinction of political, religious, or other opinions with the aim of improving the conditions of life for the residents. In discharging their duties, the Trustees have had due regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit.

The Directors of the Village Hall, who are also its trustees, continued to meet monthly through the reporting year with the exceptions of August and December.

The Directors have the power to manage the business of the Charity and may exercise all the powers of the Charity. The Directors also have the power to appoint a person who is willing to be a director.

The reporting year for Coton Village Hall runs from 1 June to 31 May.

Activities and expenditure

Throughout 2024 - 2025, Coton Village Hall continued its busy diary of community events, hall bookings and classes. A usage survey showed that the hall had bookings on over 80% of days throughout the year.

While most bookings were from Coton itself – and enjoyed the discounted booking rate available to residents – some were from farther afield. In the words of one such user:

Your wonderful hall enables our family to meet in a relaxed, well equipped, clean space with a great atmosphere. We have all come to feel at home in Coton Village Hall and have also made some amazing memories. When we first hired the hall two of my Aunties were still with us, sadly they aren't now. The gatherings at the Hall enabled us to see them and them to see the whole family in one place, those memories are priceless!

The revenue raised by the wide programme of events and activities at the Hall in recent years enabled us to begin to think about development projects as well as addressing maintenance and refurbishment needs at the Hall,

At the beginning of 2025 we formed a project group to plan the began the refurbishment of the kitchen. A new fridge and freezer combo was an important part of this if we were to increase usage for catering events and we needed to revamp fittings and floorings. (The work was successfully completed in August 2025).

We were also able to open discussions with Proctor Investments, the owner of 58, High St to buy out their share of the common access path between our two buildings. We also took the decision to close the Hall for the major part of August 2024, taking advantage of the summer quiet period to enable us to carry out a major clean, redecoration and repairs at the Hall with greater efficiency and effectiveness.

The Hall's 'top revenue earners' in 2024-25: monthly coffee mornings (£3054) the Fete (£2020 net) Christmas lunch (£390 net), quiz (£700 net) and cinema club (£604 net) demonstrate the truth of the principle 'doing well by doing good'.

We were also able to introduce our 'No Charge Hires' policy to enable those with a strong local connection to be given free use of the hall.

For some time, we have not made a charge for the hire of the hall when it is used for funeral refreshments and/or funeral proceedings when the deceased is known to have lived in the village. In 2024 – 25 we also introduced a further of category of benefit for those residents who are holding events for a charity which will deliver community benefit and for which there is no other source of funding. This also extends to residents who initiate campaigns designed to safeguard the facilities or environment of the village for which there is no other funding who may also request no charge hires. This has been very much appreciated by users.

Towards the end of the 2024-25 reporting year, we began to explore an application for a national quality accreditation designed for village halls. Meeting the Hallmark quality standard would yield short term benefits in terms of reduced insurance premiums but more importantly it gives Trustees the opportunity to review processes and to demonstrate a commitment to operational quality. We have in the last couple of days heard that we have successfully achieved the standard and our Hallmark Accreditation Certificate is on its way to us.

We look forward to increasing the way we can use the hall for public benefit in the years to come.

In this as ever we must acknowledge our good fortune to have energetic and experienced volunteers serving both as Trustees and as active members of the Coton community. The services provided by the friendly and endlessly helpful battalion of volunteer caretakers provides a much-valued personal touch appreciated by all who use our hall. At this point I would like to hand you over to our Bookings Secretary before ending my report.

Directors

At the 2024-25 AGM the following re-elections were made and approved.

Alistair Burford, Clare Fox and Gerry Radford.

Ann Puntis and Celia Beadle were re-appointed as Chair and Treasurer respectively.

A new Trustee, Deb Nicholas, was appointed to the Committee.

Financial results

Our total income for 2024-25 was £38,258 (2024: £34,870). This total includes lettings income, fundraising receipts and donations. Against this, our outgoings amounted to £18,404 (2024: £29,066). Our fixed assets (building and fixed equipment) are valued at £353,760 and this, together with our other net assets of £115,588 provides total funds for the Charity in 2024-25 of £465,558 (2024: £445,734).

Overall, the board believes it is being prudent in its approach to the Hall's finances.

Role of volunteers

We are extremely grateful to all our volunteers – to our fundraisers, our DIYers, and our caretakers. Our accounts are prepared and evaluated on a pro bono basis. Local businesses are generous with sponsorship, prizes and support. We recognise our good fortune in being able to take advantage of such good will and advice.

The successful management of Coton Village Hall is entirely dependent on a small band of volunteers who take responsibility for the Hall's strategic direction, lettings and community use, its repair programme, the supervision of cleaning and the Community Entertainment programme throughout the year.

We have not used any professional fundraisers during the year.

Trustees' responsibilities statement

The Trustees (who are also directors of Coton Village Hall for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Annual Accounts and reserves policy

The Annual Accounts are attached to this report. They reflect the healthy position that the charity has achieved through its fundraising and lettings. As at the year end, we had total cash of £115,588 in bank accounts and building society investments which the Directors consider represent an adequate level of reserves. A reserves policy has been developed by Trustees to demonstrate the processes and procedures which are used to safeguard the sustainability and continuing success of the hall.

The reporting year for Coton Village Hall runs from 1 June to 31 May.

Activities and expenditure

Maintenance of the hall building continued to be a challenge in 23-24. We are fortunate to have energetic and experienced volunteers serving both as Trustees and as active members of the Coton community who enabled us to meet this maintenance challenge, tackling a wide range of repairs on a pro bono basis.

To address issues of reliability with our AV systems, in January 2023, we contracted with a new company for services and repairs and although initial big-ticket items were required, we were enormously helped by an earmarked donation and by second-hand parts being passed to us by the new contractor. The system now is working efficiently and effectively and has enabled us to establish Coton Cinema as a valued part of the community diary and to build a reputation for work-place meetings requiring AV usage.

A flurry of essential maintenance activity took place in August 2023 including interior painting of hallway, toilets and kitchen, servicing the Velux windows and motors, a comprehensive fire safety evaluation and replacement of emergency lights plus investigative works of external render of the hall. Trustees also volunteered for the painstaking exercise of steam-cleaning all chairs.

Our Treasurer negotiated new service contracts for the Hall's heating and cooling system, for our water and electricity contracts and recovered the costs from a redundant Google G Suite contract. The Treasurer also identified suitable investment accounts to enable us to take advantage of the higher interest rates available in the year. We were able to place £50k into reserves which will continue to enable us to maintain the Hall's attractiveness as a letting space.

We also made a contribution to the Coton busway campaign in the village (a first instalment in £1k in 2023-24 (with a second instalment in 2024-25).

Fundraising for the village hall continues to be a strong and valued part of Community activities in Coton.

Jumble sales, produce and coffee mornings, car boot sales, quizzes, a Christmas lunch, and annual fete provide valuable sources of revenue for the Hall but just as importantly create a vibrant community in the village. The revenue from such activities continues to enable us to operate our differential price structure for bookings from Coton residents, non-Coton residents and company bookings.

Directors

At the 2023-24 AGM the following re-elections were made and approved.

Alistair Burford, Clare Fox and Gerry Radford

A new Trustee, Deb Nicholas, was welcomed to the Committee.
