- To present a consistently excellent and diverse programme of exhibitions and displays of photographic work, and to contribute to the cultural heritage of the future, through the stewardship of our archive.

Achievements and Performance

The charity's activities have been severely restricted during the year due to the Covid-19 pandemic. It started the financial year with its usual exhibition activity. However by the end of March 2020, the charity was unable to continue to operate its exhibitions due to the restrictions imposed by the Government in response to the COVID pandemic although a brief period was opened up in May 2020. [Note: The charity was legally and safely able to recommence its activities in December 2020 and then fully from May 2021, when it resumed its usual cycle of exhibitions around the country.]

The Photographic Angle has been able to continue its links with The Royal Photographic Society regarding photographic projects which educate and promote awareness of the environment. This remains an important area. This initiative continues to generate a considerable level of publicity for the charity.

Prior to the closure of its exhibitions in March 2020, the charity had managed to carry out 3 educational group visits to its exhibitions. This resulted in 43 students and teachers visiting its exhibitions.

The Photographic Angle

Trustees' Annual Report

Year Ended 30 November 2020

The charity has maintained its presence during the year by:-

- Journals: Through its link with The Royal Photographic Society, the charity secures exposure about itself and its activities within The Royal Photographic Society Journal, which has a circulation in excess of 10,000 members.
- The charity continues to award its small environmental bursaries in association with The Royal Photographic Society. The 2020 bursary received several good quality entrants. These also can lead to extra publicity as the winners of the bursaries often secure articles in leading publications.

Public Benefit

The Board confirms that it continues to refer to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit, when reviewing the charity's aims and objectives in planning future activities, and strictly adheres to it.

Public benefit is defined within the charity's aims, namely the advancement of education for the public benefit, in particular, in the art and science of photography and its theory and practice.

The charity achieves this by making the photographic and educational material available to the public at large with no restriction whatsoever and completely free of charge.

Financial Review

As at 30 November 2020 our balance sheet shows a total credit in funds of £231,494.

Plans for Future Periods

At the time of filing the charity's annual accounts for the year to 30th November 2020, the charity has recently commenced its exhibition operations again as it is now legally able to do so.

The charity intends to further increase and develop educational content on its website and to use this platform to continue to promote its forthcoming exhibitions and attract further visitors to its exhibitions.

The charity will continue to focus on digital media and networking websites to publicise its exhibitions in order to attract even more visitors.

The charity will continue to expand upon the considerable talent and skills of its existing employees by further developing them within their own roles.

The charity continues to develop its working practices, by improving and regularly reviewing its policy documentation. The charity's trustees recognise the important of protecting all those who come in to contact with the charity.

Year Ended 30 November 2020

Trustees' Responsibilities Statement

The trustees (who are also the directors of The Photographic Angle for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the trustees have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law the trustees must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and the income and expenditure of the charity for that period.

In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP);
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Small Company Provisions

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions for small companies under Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of The Photographic Angle

Year Ended 30 November 2020

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the charitable company for the year ended 30 November 2020.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charitable company's trustees (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ("the 2006 Act").

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the charitable company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for the independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of the accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

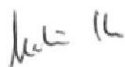

Independent examiner's statement

Since the Company's gross income exceeded £250,000 your examiner must be a member of a body listed in section 145 of the 2011 Act. I confirm that I am qualified to undertake the examination because I am a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales, which is one of the listed bodies.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the charitable company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
