Achievements and Performance

The charity's activities returned to normal during the financial year following disruption caused by the Covid-19 pandemic. Public confidence has continued to grow, and visitor numbers are gradually increasing at its exhibitions, and we anticipate continued growth in the future.

The Photographic Angle has been able to continue its links with The Royal Photographic Society regarding photographic projects which educate and promote awareness of the environment. This remains an important area. This initiative continues to generate a considerable level of publicity for the charity.

- The charity continues to award its small environmental bursaries in association with The Royal Photographic Society. The 2022 bursary received several good quality entrants. These also can lead to extra publicity as the winners of the bursaries often secure articles in leading publications.

Public Benefit

The Board confirms that it continues to refer to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit, when reviewing the charity's aims and objectives in planning future activities, and strictly adheres to it.

Public benefit is defined within the charity's aims, namely the advancement of education for the public benefit, in particular, in the art and science of photography and its theory and practice.

The charity achieves this by making the photographic and educational material available to the public at large with no restriction whatsoever and completely free of charge.

Trustees' Responsibilities Statement

The trustees (who are also the directors of The Photographic Angle for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the trustees have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law the trustees must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and the income and expenditure of the charity for that period.

In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP);
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

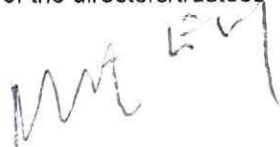

The trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Small Company Provisions

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions for small companies under Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006.

In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the charitable company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Financial instruments

Depreciation is calculated so as to write off the cost of an asset, less its estimated residual value, over the useful economic life of that asset as follows:
