PCC Report and Financial Statements for the year ended December 31st 2021

Introduction

The last 2 years as a Parish, as for everybody has been anything but normal .

The AVM in 2020 was not held until November when it had been agreed by the Bench of Bishops of Church in Wales could be held as online meetings. The 2021 AVM has been delayed due to Independent Examiner not completing the Financial Report. The new PCC and Officers will be elected to serve until the end of 2021 when the Parish will become part of the new Ministry Area. Meetings continued to be held online throughout the year.

Electoral Roll renewal planned for 2020 has been delayed until 2022 , (next renewal will be in 2027) when members will be enrolled on the new Ministry Area Electoral roll . Ministry Area Transition team will continue to plan the migration to the new Ministry Area at the beginning of 2022. There has already been a great deal of cooperation across the Parishes to develop the Ministry Area team and I'm sure we all look forward to Building God's Kingdom together in the Ministry area of Penybont ar Ogwr

Annual Vestry Report by the Vicar

As you'll appreciate, there's little to report since our last AVM. Tonight's report instead serves as an end statement of where we're at as we bring the parish system to a close in this parish and look forward to a new way of being Church with excitement, sadness and trepidation in equal measure.

The September 2010 meeting of the Governing Body of the Church in Wales concluded that she 'cannot go on doing the same things in the same way; some things need to change and we are open to – and indeed encourage – that possibility". Following this, the former Bishop of Oxford, Richard Harris was asked to lead a review group with the aim of gathering and assimilating information about the state of the Church, then provide independent advice on how the Church might reshape itself to be more effective in the 21st Century.

I've said it many times, but I'll say it again, 'If you always do what you've always done, then you'll always get what you've always got.' Unfortunately, this has meant decline in both church attendance and in vocations to the priesthood.

11 years later, Covid has not been kind to the Church either, and although congregations are gradually returning to our churches, there are many who remain fearful of venturing out. Sadly, many of the elderly haven't wanted to engage in online services either, resulting in what seems to be radical pruning. If you've ever had to do that, it's a very scary business.

We once had a healthy rubber tree at home. After not properly looking after it - it was watered, but maybe too much or too little - we decided to cut it back to the base and get rid of all the straggly bits and dying, rotting leaves and see what would happen. Being non-gardeners, we then put it outside where we promptly forgot all about it. But nature has a way of surviving. Months later we came upon the pot again and were delighted to see that new, glossy leaves were emerging. We nurtured it a bit better after that and it just kept on growing. Today it barely fits in our dining room and could actually do with another pruning session.

I say this to encourage us not to fall into the trap which is functional atheism. We say we believe in God who is Almighty, but actually, if we doubt that the Church will survive her time of pruning, then we're really saying that God is not almighty at all. In the words of the hymn, 'Ponder anew what the Almighty can do!'

Many of the plans made for re-engaging our schools and developing our social action have had to be shelved, postponed or re-thought over the last 18 months, but in spite of that, new green shoots are appearing. It's early days, but Forest Church is becoming a viable, although different way of worshipping, and nearly all the churches in the new Ministry Area are being represented. Nolton is especially enjoying a tidal wave of baptisms, although it remains to be seen how those connections made might be developed. Similarly, weddings don't seem to be going out of fashion, so we need to discern together what can be done to keep people involved when they approach us. How we can actually look outwards is still going to be challenging as the pandemic continues. I'm hoping that the PCC will devolve to successful local committees where each church takes more responsibility in realising the Diocesan vision and learns how to do this in unique ways. Perhaps that will mean Coity putting all its efforts and support into the Sunday Club, Nolton embracing what a town centre church of the 21st century looks like, Brackla finding new ways to make its mark on our school and local community. Let's all think out of the box, be bold and try new things, whilst at the same time treasuring our traditional services and making them gleam like the jewels we all know them to be for new congregations.

Personally, I'm more excited by the move to Ministry Areas than I am either saddened or terrified, but I've had my moments. Being a Vocations Adviser for the Diocese puts me in a privileged and happy position to see just a little way into the future. Maybe there aren't so many people being called to ordained ministry, but some are, so this would suggest that there will be a church for those who God has called to minister in beyond next year.

So the end has come but I hope that you'll all continue to be as involved as you always have been. Thank you for serving this Parish by giving of your time, skills and considerable experience and thank you to those others, not here this evening, who have served so faithfully over the years. I look forward to seeing our congregations and the whole of the new Ministry Area grow in faith, fellowship and number, and I look forward to seeing your ministries go from strength to strength.

Finance Report 2021

The Income and Expenditure as at 31/12/2021 was down by £2584 compared to 31/12/2020.

Overall the main areas where there was a significant reduction in income was in income received from giving and HMRC gift aid refund. However the loss was greatly offset by the increase in One-off donations, Hall rental and Parish Share refunds. I think Allie and Fred should be thanked for all the hard work they put in to rental of the halls at Nolton and Coity to generate income for the benefit of the Benefice.

During 2021 apart from fixed monthly expenditure costs we were able to carry out numerous repair and maintenance works at Nolton and Coity Churches, Halls and Graveyards. Rising inflation costs remain and we are still coming through the Covid 19 situation.

Taking all factors into account for the year 2021 we came out in credit by approx. £8500.

The purchase of a property at 4 Nolton Place, Bridgend was withdrawn because of legalities. The purchase of the property at 12 Villiers Street, Port Talbot is almost at completion and the vendor has been assured of a shorthold tenancy on completion which will then yield rental income . The RB are to approach the selling Estate agents Payton Jewell Caines at Port Talbot to act as letting Agents .

Income arising on legacies held in the RB has been paid into the General fund or reinvested in compliance with the terms and conditions of those legacies

Description of the Parish

The Parish is part of the Town of Bridgend, together with its adjoining areas of Wildmill, Litchard, the Village of Coity and Brackla. It is part of the Deanery of Bridgend, which is within the Diocese of Llandaff and the Province of the Church in Wales. The Parish is a Registered Charity – 1135927.

The Parish together with the neighbouring parish of Coychurch forms a Benefice which is a member of the Area Ministry team of Bridgend, which is developing shared resources in the area.

Following the Diocesan Conference the plans to move to Ministry Areas were revived and plans started to create the Bridgend Ministry Area comprising the Parishes of Coity, Nolton & Brackla, Coychurch, Newcastle, Laleston with Merthyr Mawr and Penyfai. Rev Maggie Thorne was appointed as Ministry Area Leader and a transition team to complete the move to Ministry Area by the end of 2021 has been put in place.

Dedication of Churches

The Parish Church is dedicated to St. Mary the Virgin and is situated in the Village of Coity.

The daughter Church is also dedicated to St. Mary and is situated very close to the Town Centre in the area of the Town known as Nolton.

The third Church, also dedicated to St. Mary, is situated within the Archdeacon John Lewis Church in Wales Voluntary Aided Primary School, on the Brackla Estate.

Objectives

The Church in Wales is a Province within the Anglican Communion and as such has the task of advancing the Christian Religion, through worldwide Mission. The Parochial Church Council is required to ensure that the life and work of the churches within their Parish is fulfilled both locally and further afield.

The PCC is not a body corporate. Its composition, procedures and powers are set out and regulated by the Constitution of the Church in Wales. This is amended from time to time to keep pace with changing times. It is set up under Section 3(1) of the Welsh Churches Acts of 1914. Elections to serve on the Parochial Church Council take place at the Annual Vestry Meeting.

The Representative Body of the Church in Wales holds lands and property, which includes the churches of Coity and Nolton, their contents and churchyards. It also acts on behalf of the Province for paying stipends to full time clergy.

The PCC is responsible for promoting the mission of the Church, the parochial budget, all expenditure, the care and maintenance of church fabric and churchyards and also for acting on any matter referred to in the Constitution. The Council is the normal channel of communication between parishioners and the Bishop of the Diocese.

With regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit and the advancement of religion, we try to enable people in our communities to live out their faith as part of our parish through: worship and prayer; learning about the Gospel, and developing their knowledge, faith and trust in Jesus; providing pastoral care for the people of the parish; and engaging in missionary and outreach work. To facilitate this work we consider it vital that we maintain the fabric of our three churches and two church halls.

There is also a greater emphasis in managing and protecting the Environment which the Parish has been actively engaged in building eco-friendly policies.

Organisation of Parochial Church Council

The Parochial Church Council is at present organised into sub committees, which carry out the duties and business assigned to it by the parent body. All the deliberations and recommendations of the Sub Committees are brought back to the PCC for ratification and/or authorisation. Membership of the sub committees is decided at the first full meeting of the PCC after the Annual Vestry Meeting, each year. From February 2020 it was not possible to hold meetings face to face. Meetings were held online using Zoom Video conferencing when the technology was accepted and approved. Due to the delay in holding AVM the PCC was not re-elected until November 2020. There were 6 full meetings of the PCC held during 2020 and 6 meetings of Standing Committee.

Finance Sub Committee

The Committee prepares budgets for the forthcoming year and keeps a watching brief on all income and expenditure throughout the year. It also prepares budgetary advice on specific items referred to it by the PCC. The Parish Treasurer presents a written financial report to the PCC at each meeting.

Fabric Sub Committee

The Committee normally meets prior to each PCC meeting. Its business, like all sub committees, is minute and presented for approval by the parent body. It is authorised to spend up to £1000 on urgent items, without further approval by the PCC. The Committee has a pro-active concern for the fabric of the churches, churchyards, church halls, boundary walls and houses of the assistant clergy. It also considers in detail and prepares budgets for items referred to it by the PCC. Under the guidance of its chairman it also ensures a prompt response to all recommendations resulting from Quinquennial Inspections.

Electoral Roll

The Electoral Roll had been due for renewal in 2020 before the Annual Vestry Meeting. Forms had been distributed and some returned but due to restrictions in place the Church in Wales directed that renewal of the Electoral roll should be postponed with a plan to renew towards the end of 2021 to prepare for the new Ministry Area.

Parish Sunday Services

The regular Sunday schedule of services was in place until restrictions were implemented during March 2020. Initially churches were closed, then for a period reopened for private prayer. Limited Services were restarted for a period after a risk assessment, with limited numbers of recorded participants and special procedures for Eucharist, and no music. A programme of online services throughout the week was developed with additional services at Festival times – (e.g. Christmas)

NOLTON & BRACKLA PAROCHIAL CHURCH COUNCIL

Independent examiner's report to the members of Parish of Coity, Nolton and Brackla Parochial Church Council

I report to the members on my examination of the accounts of the Parish of Coity, Nolton & Brackla Parochial Church Council (the Trust) for the year ended 31 December 2021.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
