- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The church is a congregation belonging to the Evangelical Presbyterian Church in England and Wales (EPCEW), itself a registered charity. As such it shares the same vision as the 11 other congregations within the Presbytery, and through the Presbytery, with other like-minded churches throughout the world such as with The Presbyterian Church of America (PCA).

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To advance the Christian faith, in accordance with the Subordinate Standard of Faith as defined in the Book of Church Order, in Solihull and in such other parts of the United Kingdom or the world as the Trustees may, from time to time, think fit, and to fulfil such other purposes which are exclusively charitable, and which are connected with the charitable work of the Trust.

To relieve persons who are in conditions of need or hardship or who are aged or sick, and to relieve the distress caused thereby, in Solihull and in

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit) such other parts of the United Kingdom or the world.

Holding public worship services on a Sunday and other meetings throughout the week to promote the spiritual growth of those in attendance. The door is open to all and the church welcomes all who are entering the building on a Sunday. Supporting missionary activities through prayer and financial aid and giving similar support to individuals who find themselves in need.

The trustees are aware of the Charity Commissions guidance on public benefit. In doing so, we can confirm that the church's activities wholly comply with this guidance. In particular, this is evidenced by the way we have sought to advance the Christian faith through outreach and teaching ministries to as many members of the public, both at home and abroad, as we are able to reach.

Hospital visits are made to both members and non-members who request some individually or through immediate family, in order to provide spiritual comfort and guidance in time of distress and worry.

The minister provides written commentary on religious and theological matters on a periodic basis.

Financial support when possible, for a small Church has been forthcoming both directly and through the congregation collectively in order to support other Christian organizations both in England and abroad.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Since the church only employs one person, the work of every member of the church, aided by the power of the Holy Spirit, makes a significant difference in its ability to achieve the above objectives. The financial resources of the church, to a very large extent, are also given by the members, and much work is done privately, without recognition, and the hours and value of that time cannot be quantified. The ethos of being the salt and light is at the heart of the congregation

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

During this year the main ways in which the church has sought to fulfil the calling of Christ upon it have been as follows:

- Preaching, teaching and showing practical care in the community. This was achieved through the normal teaching of the church on Sunday morning and evening, midweek, and also by running occasional church membership courses to address practical and theological issues from a Christian viewpoint. This includes the ordained and licensed Presbyterian minister being on call twenty-four hours a day to meet any emergency Spiritual needs such as being in hospital.
- Sharing the good news about the love of Christ through church members participating in and supporting local activities in Solihull, practicing the ethos of being the salt and the light.
- This year was a particular challenging year for the church, as for large part of the year the church couldn't meet together for worship due to the pandemic. Since March 2020, the church was meeting on-line on Sundays for worship services. The worship services were streamline via YouTube. When we were able to meet again (from September 2020), the church faced another challenge: having no building to worship in. However, the church met outside in the park just behind the building we worshipped in before lockdown. This meant the gospel was available for all t hear who visited the park.
- Providing financial, practical and prayer support to individuals and organisations seeking to advance the gospel of Christ overseas.
- The minister was instrumental in several ways to support those who are ill and/or bereaved, which was especially needed during periods of lockdown.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

This is a relatively young Church, based on historical UK standards, and is maintaining an unrestricted reserve fund equal to three months expenses. This Church has no liabilities nor does it plan to assume any debt or other liabilities, secured or otherwise. The Church has considered the possible economic effects of the current downturn and is constantly appraising its finances.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Not applicable

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Funding for the Church has come from voluntary contributions of the members of the Congregation with additional funds from other UK based Churches.

Solihull Presbyterian Church supports "Birmingham 2020" a coalition of churches and organizations working together in the Birmingham area to encourage church planting initiatives. We are working to encourage others in the Christian community, both in the UK and abroad, to support the planting of Christian Churches in underserved areas of Birmingham and seek specifically to plant additional Presbyterian Churches in this underserved area.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Solihull Presbyterian Church Trust

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2021.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts.

The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with our examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep proper accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act;have not met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
