Welcome address

Respected members, volunteers, parents and guardians,

We are very pleased to see you all again and profusely thank you for your continued, unwavering generous support to our projects. We pray that you all are rewarded back abundantly and that you are safe for all sorts of health related issues.

The COVID-19 pandemic have has caused immense havoc to everyone of us. In our communities in Birmingham and across the UK people faced it bravely and many lost their loved ones and lost their jobs and trades. They all are in our prays and thoughts. We pray for safety for all our brothers and sisters in humanity, here in our city, country and across the world, from this pandemic and from all other pandemic, trials and tribulations.

The effects of the pandemic have had severe impact on our work. However, we tried our best to carry out services as efficiently as possibly we could acting upon the regulations set by our honourable institutions. We thank every single soul who helped the humanity.

Teachers training

Like previous years, this year we offered a number of teachers training courses here in the UK and abroad, in particular to the teachers in rural areas. This year we offered regular intensive CPDs to over fifty five teachers.

The teachers liked our pedagogies very much in particular Assessment for learning (AFL) and live marking. Our local facilitator wants us to expand our services in the future.

Books and uniform distribution

The COVID-19 pandemic is having unbearable financial strains on the poor ones in rural areas. In the past we used to provide uniforms and books to over 700 children. But now the demand has jumped up in many folds.

Furthermore, many children and young people have stopped attending schools altogether. We will carry on supporting as much as we can and we seek you continued generous support.

Weekends and evening school

We have been running our Saturday and evening school continuously. Those students who attend online classes, we provided them printed materials. For those students who have established themselves in learning online well are improving exceptionally well. However, many children and young people are lagging behind. We will carry on helping as effectively as we can and we request you all to engage with families and encourage them to increase the participation as learning is the only way to break the cycle of deprivation and marginalisation.

Food package distribution

Those who had donated for meal distribution and food packages we did so and passed the photos and other details onto them. The volunteers were every pleased to see the appreciative and smiling faces of the benefices.

However, the members and volunteers are the opinion of teaching to catch the fish rather than offering the fish.

Finally, we thank you once again for your time today and seek your continued generous participation in the work that you all have been closely involved in.

Thanking you

Kindest regard

Ozair Akhtar
