Welcome address

Respected members, volunteers, parents and guardians,

We are very pleased to see you all again and profusely thank you for your continued, unwavering generous support to our projects. We wish and pray that you all are rewarded back abundantly and that you are safe from all sorts of health-related issues.

Like previous years, this year again we offered a number of teachers training courses here in the UK and abroad, in particular to the teachers in rural areas. This year we have been offering regular intensive CPDs to teachers in rural areas where, with all sorts of deprivation, education isn't their priorities.

The concept of Bite-Sized teaching and teaching every lesson at least 2-4 new words from English into local languages has proven very successful. Here, in Birmingham the children and young people have improved considerably and show increasingly greater confidence in 'Reding, Retaining, Recalling and Writing.'

However, while evaluating our work in rural areas, it became clearer to us that most of the boys are able to move on to pursue their education whereas the girls and young women are left behind. Therefore, for the next few years we will be focussing on catering for the needs of the girls' education.

In many parts of the rural areas, men go to work, and they stay away for at least two years and women stay at home. Therefore, when women aren't educated at least to the standard to help their children, the children lag behind and with all talents and intelligence they struggle to reach their full potentials. Similarly, here in Birmingham those fathers who work in restaurants, they do not get the opportunity of communicating with their children on a regular basis especially during the school days. Generally, children return from school around half past three and by that time fathers leave for the work in restaurants and in the morning when children leave for schools fathers are asleep.

Therefore, we urge you all to continue working closely with us so that we are able to help more and more girls in going for higher education. There is a very popular saying that 'teaching a girl is like teaching the whole family.'

As mentioned before in our communications, we are pursuing to expand the activities where the needs of children and young people are met.

Finally, we thank you once again for your time today and seek your continued generous participation in the work that you all have been closely involved in. As always, we are all ears for your suggestions and questions.

Thanking you

Kindest regard

Ozair Akhtar

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31 May 2024

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
