Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	This reporting year saw Royal Air Force Coningsby Officers' Mess taking the opportunities of further relaxing of COVID-19 restrictions. A return to major Mess functions saw both Battle of Britain Dining In Night, Halloween Ball and Christmas Draw take place in pre-agreed COVID-19 compliant ways, which saw a great contribution to social cohesion and opportunity to help health and wellbeing by re-connecting Royal Air Force Coningsby Whole Force personnel. Improvements to the Boston Lounge were possible through investment of time and resource, also assisted by the collection of surplus furniture/goods from the closure of Royal Air Force Kirton Lindsey Officers' Mess. Furthermore, trials to enhance the experience of the Living-In community are in place, such as dogs in the bar which will be reviewed to ensure that benefits result from such schemes.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's Managing Trustee, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent

~~The charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a Fellow member of the Association of Charity Independent Examiners.~~

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (~~other than that disclosed below *~~) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
